

Lathrup Townsite News

By LILLIAN DIEDERICH

Mary Knorr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Knorr, of Glenwood boulevard, returned Saturday from a month's vacation spent visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Charles Knorr of Manchester, Mass., an enthusiastic young rider, enjoyed riding every day on one of the horses on her grandmother's farm.

Young Peter Cunningham, aged 3, son of the J. E. Cunninghams of Glenwood boulevard, met with an accident recently while riding a wheeled toy in the living room. He crashed through a front picture window, lacerating his arm. He was rushed to Mount Carmel hospital, and is now convalescing at home.

Ether Waddell, formerly of the townsite and now of Birmingham, has planned a colorful vacation to be spent in Mexico City. She and her college schoolmate, Marian Wilbur, of Detroit, will fly there, leaving Saturday, August 31. The girls' itinerary proposes several side trips including a visit to the silver mines. Bob Waddell, her brother, is an enthusiastic jewelry designer, working mainly with silver. He also does clever leather tooling. Bob, with the US army stationed in the Aleutians, is hoping for a chance to run a hobby shop there.

Mr. and Mrs. William Orth of San Jose drive, will be hosts Saturday evening to the Diederich clan at a picnic supper. Don and Bill Diederich, and Richard and Inez Diederich and the John Glanians, (Dorothy Diederich) as well as their parents the John Diederichs of the townsite, will gather round the outdoor grill.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hines of Santa Barbara drive, had as houseguests last week, the Clyde Churches of Cleveland Heights, and their two children. A picnic in the Hines garden was enjoyed by all.

Given on Saturday, Mrs. Howard Stock, of San Diego boulevard, gave a luncheon at Devon Gables in honor of Mrs. Church, Mrs. R. E. Elias was hostess to several Cleveland guests Thursday, at a luncheon at Devon Gables.

Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Starr of Woodworth Way, will leave Sunday on a cruise to Isle Royale, with Detroit, Commander No. 3. In July they went East to New York City and remained a few days in Atlantic City. Pfc. Charles Starr expects to receive his discharge papers in early Sept. He has been in the army of occupation in Germany the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. William White, are vacationing in Northern Canada. They are neighbors of San Quentin drive.

Obituary

George Edward Willis
George Edward Willis, 1234 Maryland, died suddenly Friday night of a heart attack at the age of 67. Mr. Willis had been ill almost a year.

Rosary service was held Sunday at 8 a. m. and prayer service Monday at 9 a. m. at the Sullivan and Son funeral home in Royal Oak. Funeral services were at 9:30 a. m. Monday in the Shrine of the Little Flower, with burial in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

He leaves, besides his widow, Marie, two sisters, Mrs. John W. Baird of Park avenue, and Mrs. Mathilda Mearse of Elora, Ont. A brother, Amos, of Kitchener, Ont., also survives.

Mrs. Lullia Irene Bentley died Friday at the home of her daughter Mrs. G. B. Heharich, 32929 Lahar road. Services were held at the Kinsey funeral home in Royal Oak at 2 p. m. Monday, and entombment was in Roseland Park cemetery.

Mrs. Bentley was the widow of Duncan Bentley who died two months ago. Besides Mrs. Heharich, she leaves two other daughters, Mrs. Fred C. Reid of Huntington Woods and Mrs. Fred L. Parker of Pleasant Ridge. Two sons Leroy and Duncan, both of Detroit, also survive.
