AAUW Book Sale To Be Held Week Of October 14-19

Full of enthusiastic plans for the coming A. A. U. W. book sale this fall, committee heads met for luncheon last week at the home of Mrs. J. E. Williams, general chairman, of Merrill street.

The sale, an annual event, is to be held at the Edison building the week of October 14-19.

Those present at the luncheon were Mrs. Harry Gruber, in charge of sales; Mrs. A. D. Parnie, rare books; Mrs. C. B. W. Aldrich, transportation; Mrs. William K. Carter, marking; Mrs. Doris Thomas, posters; Mrs. Calvin Densmore, publicity, and Mrs. William M. Milligan, A. A. U. W. president.

Donations are already coming in from Birminghamites who look forward to this yearly opportunity to find book-carpenter's, contributions of fiction, children's books, rare books, non-fiction, cookbooks, mysteries, records and sheet music, games and cards and pocket editions may be left at the Baldwin library.

If collection is desired, please call Mrs. Donald Haworth, Mrs. C. B. W. Aldrich, or Mrs. J. E. Williams.

Preacher's Wife Returns

The Lambert family of Bonner Springs, Kan., is happy again now that Mrs. Bonner, middle, is back. She left "on an impulse" while her husband, Rev. John P. Lambert, right, was preaching in his Baptist Church pulpit, sending a note to him during services indicating she thought she was a detriment to his career. A week later she called from an Oklahoma City, Okla., hotel, returned by plane and was met by a hundred joyful members of the congregation at Kansas City airport. Lambert children are Joan, 19, and Judy, 8.

Luncheon Given For Mrs. Dorothy Strunk

Complete With "Big Top," Youngsters Hold Carnival

Although the circus held last Wednesday in the large yards between the Edgar Beatty home on Brookside road and the Richard R. Hindley residence on Park avenue was small in detail, the same happy spirit was present there as it is under the tents of Barnum and Bailey and Ringling Brothers.

An advance agent, David Beatty, the ten-year-old manager of the carnival, hired Ronnie Brown, also 10, of Beverly court, Beverly Hills, to canvass the Birmingham business district with a sandwich board on his back, advertising the affair. Ronnie's salary was 25 cents and 4 sticks of bubble gum.

Although there was no admission charge, 25 cents was necessary to attend the magician's show and the five Mickey Mouse cartoons. Richard Armbrust, 13, of Verona Circle, was in charge of a 25-minute mystic show, while John Brennan, also 13, showed the movies.

There was also a penny-pitching board, which was continually surrounded by interested spectators, and a fishing-pond, where for a small fee one could catch model airplanes and comic books. The wheel of fortune was at a small decorated booth, and prizes were awarded those lucky enough to win them. A ball-throwing concession was also in operation.

The "big top" was a tent set up on the Hindley's lawn. Within it were several strange animals, among them a bat (baseball), a man-eating snake (picture of a man eating a snake), and a monkey (mirror).

For the benefit of those who felt in need of refreshments during the afternoon, lemonade, cookies, and popcorn were sold at a decorated stand.

Among those thoroughly enjoying themselves were Michael Plumsted, Norma Webb, Mary Kay Griffith, Jimmy Edson, Bob Beatty, and Carol and Rich Hindley.

For adults who could not attend the show in the afternoon, an evening performance was held.

This is the second year that the carnival has been presented, and the proceeds will be used for the same reason that they were last year—to buy tickets to see the Tigers play baseball.

Tell Engagement Of Jean Thompson

Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Thompson of Cranbrook school and Five Islands, Maine, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jean, to Roger L. Ayers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh J. Ayers of Augusta, Maine.

Jean is a graduate of Kingwood school and during the war was a civilian employee of the Army Signal Corps in Arlington, Va.

Roger enlisted in the Navy immediately after graduation from North high school in Augusta, and was in the service for three years, one of which was spent aboard the U.S.S. Intrepid.

No date has been set for the wedding.

William I. Roses To Be Hosts At Rehearsal Dinner

New and exciting fabrics appear in Junior dresses for the forthcoming season. Mohair Jersey, a cashmere-like mixture, suede cloth, with the look of thin duvety, and "Minkasha," the soft and sheer woolen used for the dress pictured above, are among the most interesting from New York's 1946-47 collections.

Wool Jersey, a pet alike in campus and career girl styles, and rayon Jersey, beloved for its draping quality, share the picture with lots of woollens in fresh looking checked and striped patterns. Velvet, both in black and color, is seen in party and date dresses and is used for many Junior cocktail suits.

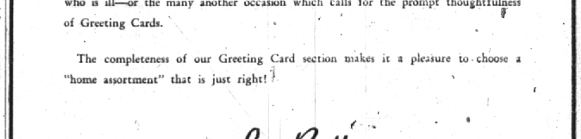

THEY KEEP THEM In Their Desks

HAVE you ever wondered on special occasions at the promptness with which some persons send Greeting Cards? They remember, and send them to you so immediately that it seems hardly possible they could have selected an appropriate Greeting Card so quickly.

They didn't! They keep them in their desks.

Many of our customers choose Greeting Cards for different occasions, doing so at their leisure, and then already have them at hand when the opportunity arises with a happy birthday, to send congratulations to proud young parents, to cheer a friend who is ill—or the many another occasion which calls for the prompt thoughtfulness of Greeting Cards.

The completeness of our Greeting Card section makes it a pleasure to choose a "home assortment" that is just right!

Leonard's Album of the Week:

We also have those dream songs everyone loves, like "STORMY WEATHER" superbly done by Larry Clinton, his orchestra and Quartet. T'other side is "SOLITUDE."

"SMOKE GETS IN YOUR EYES," another favorite, is coupled with "I'D BE LOST WITHOUT YOU," featuring the trombone of Buddy Marrow.

And then we have the dream-boy's platter of "ONE LOVE," with "SOMEWHERE IN THE NIGHT," Frankie, always mellow, is especially dreamy on this one.

Ethel Merman featured in hits from "ANNIE GET YOUR GUN," with Ray Middleton. "DOIN' WHAT COMES NATURALLY," "THEY SAY IT'S WONDERFUL," and "I GOT THE SUN IN THE MORNING," are among these selections.
