Wandering Tots Wind Up At Grandmother's

At the tender ages of two, and three, respectively, Hunt Hodges of Park avenue and her cousin Judy Dweiley of Hazel road decided to go to visit their grandmother, Mrs. G. M. Dweiley of Southfield road a happy birthday. So they started out one morning last week, walking. Since they had asked permission of no one, they were soon fined by Hunt's mother, Mrs. J. G. Hodges, who called the police about the missing children.

After a search of the neighborhood failed to reveal Hunt and Judy, Mrs. Hodges went to her parents' home, where she found the missing young ones. Needless to say, they spent the afternoon in their own back yards under watchful eyes.
