Betty Crosby Wed To Robert Olin

The Rev. James W. Wright officiated at the ceremony August 20 in the Methodist Church house which united in marriage Betty Grace Crosby of Henrietta street, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crosby of Edmore, Mich., and Robert John Olin of Frank street, son of the Emil Olins of Southfield road. The double ring service took place at 10 o'clock in the morning.

The bride spoke her vows dressed in a two-piece gray wool suit, all-white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Greta Martinac, her attendant, wore a two-piece suit of navy blue with navy accessories. Her corsage was of red rosebuds.

Robert Rothwell was the groom's best man.

After a brief honeymoon to Battle Creek, the new Mr. and Mrs. Olin will reside on Forest street.

Former Hills Girl To Wed In October

Announcement of the engagement and forthcoming marriage of her daughter, Ruthe Mary, has been made by Mrs. Julia Randolph of Grosse Ile, formerly of Bloomfield Hills. Ruthe Mary will become the October bride of John Richard Widmer, son of Frank Widmer of New Kensington, Pa., and the late Mrs. Widmer. The exact date for the marriage has not yet been set.

John was graduated from Arnold high school in New Kensington, and from the Naval Air Corps school in Pensacola as a cadet. Serving 18 months in the Pacific aboard an aircraft carrier, he was discharged Feb. 2, 1946, and is now with the reserve Naval Air Corps.

Ruthe was graduated from Bloomfield Hills high school in 1942.

Norma Wyatt To Be Bride Of Sept. 1; Honored At Parties

In honor of bride-elect Norma Wyatt, Nancy Nelson of Riverside drive was hostess Wednesday evening, Aug. 21, at a miscellaneous shower. Besides the guest-of-honor and hostess, Gertrude and Pauline Hasse, Pat Oswald, Eleanor Smith, Sally Leary, Lorraine Richert, Mary Cucchi, Mary McGinnis, and Joan Daneke were included in the evening's festivities.

Tuesday afternoon and evening Norma was feted at two additional showers. The first, a miscellaneous shower, was hostessed by Mrs. Carl Hasse in her Devonshire road home. Guests included Mrs. George P. Nelson, Mrs. Nute Hadley, Mrs. Raymond Bishop, Mrs. Cecil Burkholder, Mrs. Herbert Green, Mrs. William Old, Mrs. Joseph Cucchi, Mrs. Albert Martin, Mrs. James Olsen, Gertrude and Pauline Hasse, Rita Wyatt, Mrs. William Mecum, and Mrs. Ewald Schadt.

Later Eleanor Smith of Abington road, Detroit, was hostess to more of Norma's friends at a kitchen shower. Florence Ericksen, Nancy Burns, Alice Grant-Watters, Elizabeth and Roxa Phelps, Jean Gibbs, Adele Birrel, Nancy Nelson and the Hasse girls gathered at Eleanor's home to honor Norma.

Norma will become the bride of Rista Velich of Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 1 in the First Baptist church.

Mrs. Garrison Feted

Mrs. L. M. Ball of Madison street and Mrs. J. C. Strother, also of Madison street, were hostesses Wednesday at a progressive party in honor of Mrs. F. G. Garrison who will leave soon for South America. About twenty guests began the afternoon with cocktails at Mrs. Ball's home, then enjoyed luncheon at Devon Gables, and spent the remainder of the time in the Strother home, where Mrs. Garrison was honored at a handkerchief shower.

Christ Church Cranbrook Is Scene of Martin-Smith Vows

White gladioli decorated Christ Church Cranbrook Saturday for the marriage of Jeri-Lou Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Smith of Lincoln road, and Nicholas Martin III, son of the Nicholas Martins II of Linden road. The young couple spoke their vows to the Rev. William S. Hill at 3:00 in the afternoon.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, had chosen as her bridal robes a rosepoint lace bodice with a high round neckline and brief sleeves, which swept into a full marquisette skirt. Her three-quarter-length veil was gathered into a Dutch cap edged with lace and she carried a white orchid and stephanotis on a white Bible.

Her two attendants, Elizabeth Sites of Port Huron and Nancy Neumann of Bloomfield Hills, were gowned in lightweight taffeta with very full skirts. The dresses had three-quarter-length sleeves and sweetheart necklines, and while Nancy's gown was aqua, Elizabeth wore tearose. Their half-hats were pinned in the middle with big matching roses and they carried old-fashioned nosegays of dark red roses.

Mr. Martin was best man for his son, and the ushers were Andrew Spiegel, C. Arthur Miller, Robert Waggoner, and Richard Keyes.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Smith home on Lincoln road. Mrs. Smith received her guests wearing a gown of pastel print silk and a hat of royal blue tulle. Her gloves were light gray and she wore a purple orchid. She was assisted by Mrs. Martin, who wore a navy blue silk suit with tiny white pin stripe, navy hat and purple orchids.

Michigan honeymoon, she was wearing an Egyptian print dress with rust and black predominating, and a black short coat and accessories.

Upon their return around Labor Day, they will reside in Granville, Ohio, where both are returning to their studies at Denison University.

Nona Davison Married To Paul Kelley

The Rev. James W. Wright officiated at the ceremony Saturday afternoon at four o'clock which united in marriage Nona Marie Davison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walter Davison of Larchlea road, and Paul Robert Kelley, son of the Charles Wallace Kelleys of Ann street. For the service, the Methodist church house was decorated with fall-colored gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length dress of moss green wool, with the new three-quarter-length push-up sleeves, a self-bow at the rounded neckline and a full skirt gathered in front. Her hat was of brown ostrich tips, and her corsage was of yellow roses.

As her sister's attendant, Gloria Estelle Davison dressed in gold wool, with the push-up sleeves, the rounded neckline, and a wide belt of the same material. Her accessories also were brown and she wore Talisman roses.

The groom's brother, Harold Kelley, was his best man.

For the reception in the Davison home which followed the rites, Mrs. Davison chose brown crepe fashioned with a side-draped skirt, three-quarter-length sleeves and a soft V-neckline. Her hat and gloves were moss green and her corsage was of tea roses. Mrs. Kelley wore bright blue crepe, on lines similar to that worn by the bride's mother. Her hat matched her gown, and her accessories were navy blue. She wore a gardenia corsage.

For the week's honeymoon trip to the groom's cottage near Tawas, the bride added a brown coat and accessories to her wedding costume and was wearing her bridal corsage.

On their return the young couple will live in Kalamazoo where Mr. Kelley will study at Western Michigan college.

Soroptimists Hold Ice Cream Social

The home of Mrs. Matthew Cammareri, corner of Adams and Forest, was the scene of an old-fashioned ice cream social held last Thursday evening by the Soroptimist Club. The large number of guests were served vanilla ice cream, home-made cake and pie, and coffee on colorful tables set out under the trees on the brightly lighted grounds.

Beginning at 7 in the evening the affair lasted until 11. Mrs. Cammareri was chairman and her aides were Mrs. Laura Connelly and Mrs. Rose Adams, while Mrs. Ruth Collins was fortune teller, and Miss Hattie Arden handled the fishpond.

Assisting with the serving were Miss Irene Hanley, Mrs. Frank Packard, Mrs. Bessie Maxwell, Mrs. Fannie Adams, Mrs. Russell Heinz, Mrs. Rose Buck, Miss Laura Schroeder, Mrs. Bess Wright, Miss Marian Hawkins, Mrs. Gertrude Arnold, Mrs. R. E. Burns, Mrs. Helen Hawthorne, Miss Grace Glassford, Mrs. Manley Bailey, and Miss Kathleen Jones.

College-Bound

Three Birmingham girls, students at Stephens College in Columbia, Mo., will leave early to attend the Campus Leaders Conference which will begin Sept. 12.

Those who are busily packing their trunks for the journey are Marjorie Wray Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice F. Smith, of Pilgrim road; Martina McKinney, daughter of Mrs. F. H. McKinney of Puritan road, and Mary Beresford, daughter of the James A. Beresfords of Lone Pine road.

A Lot of Little Things

IN ADDITION to Gifts, Books and Stationery, we have a lot of little things which you may not know we can supply. Staples, they are usually called—things like paper clips, erasers, inks, pens, carbon paper, typewriter ribbons, rulers, notebooks, candles—just a lot of little things: more of which are listed below our signature.

We mention them because, although a lot of folks rely on us regularly for such items, perchance you have just moved here and so would like to know a convenient source for those many things which, though they cannot all be displayed, are always in stock.
