

Anne Nichols Sets Date Of Wedding

Anne Nichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Bloom, Nichols of Tiverton road, has set Saturday, September 14, as the date of her marriage to Arthur D. Foley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Foley of Madison avenue. The ceremony will take place in St. Hugo of the Hills church with the Rev. Daniel T. Wholhan officiating. Elizabeth Nichols, sister of the bride-elect, will be maid-of-honor and another sister, Charlotte, will be one of the bridesmaids. The other bridesmaid will be Mrs. Robert Gee of Madison, Wis. Arthur has asked his brother, Robert, to be best man. Ushers will include John Foley, another brother, Charles Savage, Frank L. Cavan, Jr., and Radner Taylor, all of Birmingham, and John Donnelly of Detroit. A reception at the Nichols home will follow the ceremony. All kinds of household goods are readily sold by use of Eccentric Classified Ads.

Florence Parisien Becomes Bride of Sgt. Kenneth Livy

Florence Parisien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Parisien of Lakeside road, became the bride of Sgt. Kenneth Livy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Livy of Holland avenue at a nine o'clock ceremony Saturday morning at St. Ann's church of Redford. Father Paul officiated at the service.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a beautiful gown of white marquisette with a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, and court train. Her illusion veil was of fine tulle and fell from a tiara etched in seed pearls. She carried a white sashbook with Easter lilies and sweet peas.

Loretta Parisien, sister of the bride, as maid-of-honor, wore a pink marquisette with short sleeves, a sweetheart neckline, tight bodice, ruffled peplum, and very full skirt. Her veil of pink illusion was held in place by a wreath of pink roses and she carried a bouquet of the same flower. Bridesmaids, Marie and Ethel LaPage, and Helen Moore wore blue, yellow, and aquamarine marquisette gowns fashioned like that of the maid-of-honor with matching veils, and wreaths and bouquets of yellow roses.

Rita and Ethel Parisien, wore peach and sky-blue marquisette. Ethel was maid-of-honor for the bride. Both wore wreaths of flowers in their hair and Rita carried peach roses. Bill Small was best man and guests were seated by Marcell Champagne of Detroit, Joseph Tamer and George Young of Redford, George Kulnich and Bill Thornton. Eddie Parisien was ring-bearer.

A reception at the home of the bride followed the ceremony. Mrs. Parisien received her guests wearing a green and black jersey blouse and black French crepe skirt, black accessories, and a corsage of yellow roses. She was assisted by Mrs. Livy who wore a pearl grey suit with black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Following the reception the
