

Young and Old Enjoy Playground Field Day at Pierce Field Friday Morning

By Judy Sappington

Friday morning dawned bright and clear and youngsters all over the city heaved sighs of relief—it was a perfect day for the Birmingham playgrounds' "Field Day." Soon from every part of the community children and grown-ups began to head for Pierce Field to take part in the activities which began at 9:30 with a costume parade.

Hand-in-hand, a tramp and a bumlike bee hurried down the street. Behind them puffed a fat lady, prodded gently by a dancing clown. Covetous shopping ladies, a little Chinese boy, a Hawaiian girl, a Russian girl, and Indiana followed. And at the very last came a little boy in pajamas carrying a fire and a candle, seen so often on the Pickle tire sign. With Joan Sappington, who put their heads together and came up with twelve prizes for the most outstanding costumes. One of the most hilarious events was the girls' suitcase race. Three teams received were Dickie Viers, Richard Gergie, Dick Dutton, John Carter, Pat Halpin, Ticky Cavaller, Bussy Cavaller, Louise Shooka, Bertall Little, Molly Ann Martin, Barbara Ritter, and John Unger.

After the parade was over contests were held for boys and girls, and toys and refreshments were sold. Pat Halpin and Joy Campbell were winners in the girls' shoe race; Gordon Jagger and Robert Van Fietersen were first and Merrill Schlaack and Tommy Silson third in the boys' horse and rider contest; and Janet and Roberta Quilhot were first, Barbara Beach and Alice Mohler second, and Bertell Little and Coralee Shooka fifth in the girls' wheelbarrow race.

Twelve Recre Prizes. All the above and many more paraded before Judges Juanita Moomen, Mrs. William Martin, and Prize for the Smallest Pair. In the three-legged race for boys, Tucker Lonscombe and Doug Bates won a prize for being first and David Parmit and Tommy DeWitt received prizes for being the smallest pair to enter the race. In the girls' three-legged race Ann Rutledge and Bonnie Dayton were first and Shirley Eyster and Bunny Cavaller were awarded prizes for the most odd-sized couple.

In the king of the ring contest, Gordon Jagger was first and Gilbert Hall second. First, second, and third prizes in the girls' needle-threading contest went to Janet Quilhot, Shirley Bentley, and Jean Hunter. The boys' bicycle race Leonard Kessler was first, Ronnie Phillips third, and Charles Waterland last. One of the most hilarious events was the girls' suitcase race. Cook-Lee Vows Are Spoken Saturday n Detroit Church

White gladioli and palms decorated the Woodward Avenue Presbyterian church of Detroit Saturday for the marriage of Helmer Catherine Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cook of W. Lincoln road, to Major Richard Lee, son of William Richard Lee and Mrs. William Lee of Bethesda, Md. The couple exchanged their vows at 4:30 p. m. before the Rev. A. N. Wilson.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely off-shoulder bouffant gown of white nylon marquisette. Her floor-length veil of illusion was held in place by a cap of lace set to her by the bridegroom. From Normandy during his overseas service she carried a cascade of white gladioli.

Mrs. Carl Brommel, sister of the bride, as matron-of-honor, wore a gown of yellow nylon marquisette with a matching coronet and carried a cascade of yellow gladioli. Maid-of-honor, Fannie Lee, sister of the groom, was gowned in orchid nylon marquisette with a matching coronet and carried orchid gladioli in a cascade effect.

The bridesmaids, Mary Lee, another sister of the groom, and Faith Bennett of Detroit, wore gowns of aqua nylon marquisette with aqua coronets and carried cascades of gladioli in aqua shades.

Jack House of Evergreen, Colo., afternoon dress and flowered hat. Mrs. Lee wore a light blue crepe dress and large black hat. Both mothers wore corsages of white glamelias. A reception was held at the Cook home after which Major Lee and his bride left for a wedding trip to Mexico. For traveling Mrs. Lee wore a print dress in orchid, black and white, a large black hat, black accessories, and a corsage of white glamelias.

Local Girl To Sing On Sunday Program

Faye Elizabeth Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Keyes of Hazelwood avenue, will sing Sunday as guest artist of Laymond Master on the International Master program, "Harvest of the Stars" at 1:30 p. m. over station WWV.

Miss Smith is a graduate of Michigan State College and is now studying under Maurice Jacques in New York. She is under contract with N.B.C. television and has her own program on Friday evenings.

She will spend some time in Birmingham with her parents the latter part of August. SOCIETY NEWS must be in the Eccentric editorial office by five o'clock every Tuesday afternoon. Deadlines for CLUB NEWS remain the same at noon Mondays. adv.

HOW ABOUT A Thick Juicy Man-size Steak

for dinner tonight—broiled as you like it—drizzling with fresh cream butter—a golden brown chicken and vegetables fresh from our garden. Fluffy home-made rolls, baskets of "em-piping" hot from our oven, "crisp" tossed salad and perizze. If your appetite will stand the strain, home-made sherries or coffee—the you'll talk about and come back for more.

Sounds good? Then come on out for a Twin Hearth dinner. You will enjoy it. Served in this charming old farmhouse inn with its spacious grounds—quaint furnishings—like a transplanted bit of New England. And notice those lovely paintings on our walls, done by members of the Birmingham Society of Women Painters. You probably know some of them. But so many of you have already been here and are apparently saying nice things about it, that I am about up to my seating capacity, particularly on week-ends, so please
