Dorothy Heacock and Alfred Hahn Married Thursday

The Heacock home on South Woodward avenue was the scene last Thursday afternoon of the marriage of Dorothy Heacock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Heacock to Alfred A. Hahn, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hahn of Toledo, O. Tall candelabra, white gladioli and cymbeline fern decorated the living room for the affair. The Rev. Arnold Rankel performed the double-ring ceremony at 4:00. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a soft blue cotton dress fashioned with a square neckline, wide bertha of white eyelet, and short full skirt. She carried a bouquet of white larkspur and white roses centered with gardenias. Nancy Heacock was her sister's only attendant. She wore a pink cotton dress with a V-neckline and accents of white eyelet on the shoulders. Her flowers were pink roses surrounded by pink larkspur. The groom wore a suit of pink larkspur.
