Methodist Church—Plans to Celebrate 125th Anniversary
 The week of November 17th-24th has been set as 125th Anniversary Week by the congregation of the First Methodist Church. The occasion is in honor of an unknown itinerant minister who conducted the first church service here in 1821. Just two years after the first three houses had been built.

The anniversary committee, headed by John Hayward, is planning a program of activities during the week which will feature some of the former pastors and nationally important church officials. Mrs. Carl Binkie is writing the congregation's history, which is to be printed in booklet form for distribution at that time.

Other members of the committee are: Rev. H. H. Henshaw, Henry Wagner, Mrs. Russell McBride and The Anniversary Committee.

The anniversary promises to be one of the highlights of the church year.
