Business Women's Tea To Be Sunday Feature

The Birmingham Business Women's Club will hold their annual Christmas party Sunday afternoon, Dec. 15, between the hours of 4 and 6 at the Community House.

A program has been arranged by program chairman, Harriet Mudge and her committee, including Kathleen Jones, Vida Cammerare, Ruth Collins, Cleo Cook and Marieje Hobbins.

After the program, gifts to the club's secret pals will be exchanged.

One of the club's projects is the knitting of afghans for use in veterans hospitals. To date, eight have been completed and presented to these hospitals.

During the past year the club has purchased a custom-built wheel chair which was given as a gift to one of the World War GI veterans at Percy Jones Hospital, and to this veteran will go one of the afghans as his Christmas gift from the club.

As a special project, the club has purchased a radio to be given to Percy Jones Hospital and assigned to a ward so it may be enjoyed by as many of the boys as possible.

Members of the knitting group of the Birmingham Business Women's Club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Julia McBride.
