

Of course
A Merry Christmas to everybody
and a Better 1947

It was no picnic doing business in 1946; it was a battle all the way, for both you and I.

I will be in there pitching to serve you quickly, fairly, and economically in 1947, so a year hence I can say again "Thanks; business grew some more."

Social Activities Make Young Set Glad To Be Home

By Eleanor Thomson

Although the average collegian comes home at Christmas time with a great longing for rest, peace and quiet, it is the desire to greet one's friends, find out what's new, and go places and do things.

The holiday season this year is not without its social activity, by far. The first event listed on the calendar is the afternoon tea tomorrow at which Dottie Adams will be hostess to friends in her Kennesaw road home.

Tomorrow evening, Sally Booth and Sally Whitson will be the honorees at the dinner for them at the Grosse Pointe Country Club at which their parents, Warren S. Booths of Martell drive, and the James Fraser Whiteheads of Grosse Pointe will be hosts.

Nancy Bell is to be the hostess Saturday evening at the Kinsberly road home of her parents. The occasion is an open house for 60 to 70 of her friends, and assisting her will be Greta Bergshagen and Marjorie Wilson.

Newell Open House
Margaret and Frances Newell have issued invitations for their open house Sunday afternoon, to take place in their West Maple road residence.

Monday evening, friends of Larry, Robert and Nancy Neumann will go to their Henley drive address for the open house at which the trio will greet their friends.

The next evening is Christmas Eve, and Buntzy and Nancy Hart have invited a few of their friends to join them at their home on Argyle boulevard. Buntzy is leaving the 26th and 27th out of town, so Nancy will have to say hello to her friends for her Christmas Day.

That day after Christmas, the 26th, the home for Christmas crowd will stop over at Phyllis Kessan's home on Pilgrim road, where Phyllis will be an open house hostess that afternoon. Her assistants will be Beverly Grier, Jean MacGregor, Betty Hooper and Ruth Adams.

Afternoon Tea
That same day, Thursday, Virginia Lawler will be assisted by Virginia Christie at the tea that afternoon which will take place in the Lawlers' Martell drive home.

And on Friday, the Fairfax road home of the John F. Gordons will be the scene of the tea which is being given by Clara Gordon for her friends.

And Saturday, Susan Carey will be the honoree at the afternoon tea which her mother, Mrs. Charles E. Carey of Lahser road, is having to present Susan.

Arrange Super Dance
That same evening, the E. M. Vehmeyer and the Willis T. Higbbs have made the necessary arrangements for the supper dance at Oakland Hills Country Club which will honor their daughters, Marjorie Ann Vehmeyer and Patricia Hicbie.

Jody Lander and Patty Keller have selected Sunday, Dec. 29th, as the date of the large open house, which will take place in their Wing Lake road home. Their assistants for the occasion will be Jean Wyckhoff, Rachel Kern, Nancy MacQueen, and Sarah Stevenson of Flint.

Monday blues will have nothing at all to do with the open house to which Nancy Allen has invited her friends. It will be an afternoon affair, to take place in the Sheffield road home of her parents.

For the second day in January, Annie Spiegel, Alice Stauffer and Betty Hooper are busily making plans. They will be hostesses at a bridge luncheon to be held at Oakland Hills Country Club that day.

Village School Will Greet Santa, Too

Bloomfield Village School will have its Christmas party tomorrow afternoon. Activities will begin at 1 o'clock when the children will present a Christmas program to which all mothers are invited.

Later each room will have its own party complete with a Christmas tree, gifts and refreshments. Room mothers and arrangements with the teachers for the affair, and already mysterious packages are appearing under the Christmas trees.

The beginners will have their party Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Juniors Prepared For Junior Assembly Dinner Dance

Members of the junior set are anxiously awaiting tomorrow evening when they will dress up in formal attire to attend the Junior Assembly dinner-dance.

Sixty young people will be seated at the long dinner tables in the lounge of the Community House. The tables will be decorated with huge big candles and Christmas greens will be used on them, as well as in the ballroom where the couples will dance following the seven o'clock dinner.

Music will be furnished by a ten-piece orchestra.

Assisting Mrs. Basil E. Brown, the instructor, with arrangements are Mary Grindley, Jean MacGregor, Ann Mosby, Bud Carrick, Jim Dadds and Bill Wilkinson.

When you want to give records but don't know which ones, give a Columbia or Victor record gift certificate, available in any amount.

The Singing Lady, Irene Wicker, tells the junior set all about Christmas in an album, including the "Legend of Christmas Stocking." Also by her is the album "Alphabet Fun A to Z" and "Goldilocks and the Three Bears." Each album—$1.50.

VOGUE PLASTIC UNBREAKABLE CHILDREN'S RECORDS.

The Let's Pretenders do scores of the old favorite fairy tales. On our shelves are "Puss in Boots," and "Jack and the Beanstalk." Each album—$2.35.

Ma Perkins does her bit for the kiddies, too, in an album entitled "The Animal Cracker Fair." Hilarious fun for $2.10.

From Wistful Vista way comes "On the Night Before Christmas," by Fibber McGee and Molly, with the King's Men, Billy Mills & Orch. $2.90.

Also Tick-Tack-Toe by the Stoeyland Theater—$2.10. "All Around the Christmas Tree," Dick Todd & Mark Warnow, and Gene Kelly's "Shoemaker and the Elves," for $1.50.
