The Ranch Room Roundup

By Alice Grant-Watters

Well kids, the Canteen Committee has planned a lot of fun for everyone during the Christmas holidays.

The first event will be a scavenger hunt December 13.

Everyone will meet at the Community House at 7:30 to get their lists, which will be made out by Miss Amy Wild, and will return by 9:30. From 9:30 till 11 there will be dancing.

Later during Christmas vacation there will be a bridge tea for all girls. The exact date has not been set but the girls will be notified.

Pat Sanderson and Shirley Mainland, co-chairmen have planned a wonderful time for everyone who attends.

There are more parties already planned for the very near future, so watch this column for information on all Canteen doings.

Be sure to come to the scavenger hunt which will be loads of fun, and it will be early enough for everyone to get in on a school night.

The Tail Wags the Dog

20 years ago the job printing department here at The Eccentric was about one-tenth of our business - the newspaper being the remaining 90%.

Today the picture is completely reversed and the newspaper department is about 15% of our total business. Yet, during this same period our newspaper has more than doubled in volume.

This will give you a rough idea of the facilities and capacity of our printing department. May we serve you Detroit business executives?
