On Sister Kenny Foundation Committee

By Lila Giles

As the spotlight was focused upon Club 1930, Dec. 3rd, we saw a change of plans. According to our chairman, Louis Corsi, letters had been sent out announcing our roller skating party for Tuesday, but due to the great distance involved, he and his committee decided to wait until tonight and go to the nearby rink at Clawson. Everyone is to appear by eight o'clock tonight or be left sitting on the steps.

Tuesday night found the group absorbed in tournaments of all kinds. The girls invaded the pool room and competed with the males. Some fareed quite well, much to the fellows' chagrin.

Gene Richardson, Dale Ballard and Norm Porter supervised the ping pong and pool contests while Betty McClelland, Bill Rosso and Betty King were the executives in the cards and checkers department. To enter the competition, the members found the sport most appealing, and signed their names. There were no prizes, but a few went home with quite a nice dose of self-esteem. Bob Erwin, Punch Skuse, Don Olinshimer, Alice Roulette, Alex Larson, Dorothy Langer, Chuck Van Fletener, Bob Moody, Mary Jane Welch, Hala Webster, Jim Horzberry, Tom Cummings, Nell Wakefield and even Amy Will were among the participants.

December 10 a big square dance is to be held in the ball room of the Community House. Either Mr. or Mrs. Brennan of Dearborn will do the calling and also furnish the music.

December 17th will be the big event of the month. Corsi and his committee have great plans for a Christmas party, most of which are secretive at this date.
