A. A. U. W. Raising Money For Its New Fellowship Fund

To raise funds for graduate fellowships for women, the Recent Graduates group of the American Association of University Women will entertain members and friends of the organization at a dessert bridge Saturday, Feb. 16, at 2 p. m. in Kerr Auditorium, Detroit.

Proceeds from the party will go to the National Fellowship Fund of A. A. U. W. This year the national group will award 24 fellowships to distinguished women scholars for advanced study in American universities. Each fellowship carries with it a stipend of $1,500.

Tickets for the bridge, to which the public is invited, may be purchased from members of the organization. Reservations may be made by calling Miss Louise T. Payne, chairman of the local A. A. U. W. Fellowship Fund at TE 1-1450, Extension 228, before 5 p. m. any week day. Price of the tickets is $1.25.

At the bridge party favors will be awarded and "rare objects," such as butter and Nylon hose, will be sold. Contributions of members to a "Treasure Chest" will be sold.

Since 1890 A. A. U. W. has granted fellowships to enable American women to do their part in spreading the boundaries of knowledge. The organization likewise awards a number of international fellowships in cooperation with the International Federation of University Women. Several of these fellowships have gone to women scholars from Latin America.

In 1945 the National Fellowship Committee of A. A. U. W. set up special emergency grants to be given to women scholars from the liberated countries of Europe. At present six women from Norway, Holland, Belgium and France are studying in this country on such grants.
