Bonscore-Savage Rites Solemnized Saturday Morning

Announcement is made of the marriage of Grace Bonscore daughter of Mr. A. Bonscore of Cheboygan, and Walter G. Savage, son of Ed and Mrs. R. Savage of Bay City.

The couple was married by the Rev. David J. Duncan Saturday morning, Feb. 23, at 9 o'clock at Holy Name Church. For her wedding the bride chose a powder blue dressmaker suit and gold accessories. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

Jo Anne Savage, sister of the bridegroom, was Grace's only attendant. She wore a fuchsia suit and accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The bride's brother, Alvin, was best man and Sally Anderson, a former student of Miss Savage, sang "Ave Maria" during the ceremony, which was followed by a breakfast for 25 guests at the Normandy.

After a honeymoon in Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Savage will live in Birmingham and Mrs. Savage will continue teaching in Lake Orion.

Spring Blossoms Adorn Smith-Willmore Wedding

The marriage of Barbara Leigh Smith, daughter of the Guy Chester Smiths of Bloomfield Hills, and Thomas Frederick Willmore, Jr., son of the Thomas Frederick Willmore of Ingoquois, Ga., took place at 5:30 p. m. on Saturday, the 23rd of February, at Christ Church Cranbrook. The Rev. Charles Cadogan officiated at the double ring ceremony which was followed by a small reception at the Smith residence on Vaughan road.

Given in marriage by her father, Barbara chose a bridal gown featuring a white satin bodice with a yoke of net appliqued with a delicate scroll design of satin. The long, light fitting sleeves were puffed at the shoulder and satin tulips were scattered over the full skirt and short train of net. Her short veil of illusion was bound with satin and held in place by a coronet fashioned of satin cordings. The bridal bouquet of white tulips and hyacinth blossoms was centered with a white orchid.

The bride's sister, Marian Leigh, who came from Mt. Vernon Seminary to be maid-of-honor, wore a white embroidered organza and net gown and carried tulips, shades of lavender and rosy red.

Anna Louise Smith and Kithie Smith, as bridesmaid and junior bridesmaid for their sister, were groomed alike in bouffant white net with perky little bustles in back. Their bouquets were of painted pink and white tulips.

Paul T. Kree of New York City was best man and the guests were welcomed alike in bouffant white net with perky little bustles in back. Their bouquets were of painted pink and white tulips.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Smith chose a gold colored crepe dinner gown with swag drapery across the front. With this she wore a cocoa colored maline hat.
