Maple Reserves Down Port Huron In Close Contest

By DICK HALSTED

In a sharp reversal of form Birmingham's Reserves avenged an earlier 37 to 24 loss by trimming a crack Port Huron Reserve five 24 to 23 Friday night on the Hurons' large floor.

Racking up their eleventh triumph in 14 starts, the Maples' Reserves surprised Port Huron with a strong defense that held the opposition to six points in the first half and then staved off a last stanza challenge that barely failed.

The Huron five went scoreless until Leon Bovee finally tallied a field goal with four and a half minutes played. Meanwhile Gene Sutton counted three points for Birmingham after four minutes and the visitors wound up with 7 to 4 margin at the quarter.

Sparked by Dick Blauman and Sutton, the Maples increased their pace during the next six minutes to pile up a comfortable 15 to 6 lead before the next half ended. Birmingham's pressing defense limited Port Huron to two markers.

The Big Red battled furiously in the second half, Paced by Jerry Feights' five counters, they shortened the gap to 19 to 13 at the third quarter mark.

The visitors' slowed-up attack managed to match Port Huron's five points until the last three minutes. Then Pete Maxwell collected four markers that just fell short of overcoming the stubborn Birmingham five.

Blauman netted eight points for the winners while Maxwell topped the losers with ten markers. The Maples decided the contest at the free throw line by sinking six out of nine.

Port Huron Team Wins League Title in 31 to 23 Victory Over Birmingham, Fri.

By BILL BONES

Port Huron walked off with the Eastern Michigan basketball title by beating Birmingham 31 to 23 Friday night for its eighth straight league victory.

The first quarter was slow as both teams jockeyed for defensive positions. Neither team showed accuracy on the few shots taken, and the horn sounded with the score 3 to 1 for Port Huron.

Birmingham had trouble adjusting its defense to the lengthy Port Huron floor and Port Huron began to increase its lead. Bud Gasser, guard, kept Birmingham in the running by sinking two beautiful one-handed shots. The half closed with the score at 16 to 9 for the Blue Water boys.

Port Huron's defense kept the Maples' center, Chuck Murray, from taking many shots. The locals resorted to long shots but had trouble with the lively backboards in this strange gym, their long shots bounding sharply off the hardwood, giving the Reds' lanky retrievers excellent chances for recovery. Hence Birmingham trailed at the change of quarters 23 to 12.

Finally doping out the conditions, the Maples' scoring attack broke loose in the last period, netting almost as many in this stanza as in the rest of the game. Roger Reynolds and Chuck Murray led this 11-point attack with four apiece. The final gun ended the Maples' late bid for victory.

Reynolds scored high for the Maples, netting eight points. Jerre Alexander got nine to lead the victors while Don Thomas and Jack Evans were close behind with eight each.

Barnum Heads Jr. High Basketball League By Game

By KEITH LITTLE

Barnum Junior High downed Berkley 26 to 9 in Monday's basketball game. Barnum started off slowly but warmed up in the second quarter to build a big lead. The Barnum defense clicked again as Barnum saw to it that Berkley didn't make more than three points in any one quarter.

Coach Brotzman put in three complete teams from time to time. Bob Folin led the team with 11 points. The rest of the points were divided among the team. Heiser led Berkley, making six of the team's nine points.

Barnum is still sole owner of first place with but one game remaining. This is with Royal Oak. Royal Oak has been Barnum's jinx this year, always giving them a tough fight.

Special Tea Honors New Baldwin Girls

Honoring new girls at Baldwin, the George Washington tea was given Friday afternoon by the Girls' Athletic Association. Punch, cakes and cookies were served in the Ruth Shain room at the Community House, and all Baldwin girls and women teachers were invited.

General chairman of the tea was Ellen Van Wagoner, and Mary Elizabeth Smith was in charge of refreshments. The table, centered with a black, paper tricorn hat filled with red roses, was done by Lois Bloyer.

All the new girls were given carnation corsages.

PLAN SWIMMING MEET

A swimming pageant, sponsored by the Girls' Athletic Association, will be given at Barnum pool Friday, March 22, at 8:30 by the advanced swimmers, called the Sharks.
