Men in Service

Editor's Note—Men in the armed forces, and parents, are invited to send us news of the boys' whereabouts and activities. Service men, scattered about the country, are hungry for news of their friends. Even the address of a newly-placed inducted man is of interest.

FROM PEARL HARBOR

Word from Pearl Harbor this week indicates the early arrival back in Birmingham of Sgt. Andrew Spiegel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Spiegel, who came to San Pedro, Calif., on the U. S. S. Santee, an escort carrier; and T/4 Donald Tweelie, 576 Park street, who came on the U. S. S. Eastland from Yokohama.

Try Again

"Who's the absent minded one now?" said the professor as they left the church one rainy night.

"You left your umbrella back there and I not only remembered mine but I brought yours too."

And he produced them from his coat.

His wife gazed blankly at him. "But," said she, "neither of us brought one to church."

Change Is Made In Army Recruiting

The local recruiting officer, Sgt. Joseph Manfred, has stated that a new War Department directive has been released whereby men recently discharged from the Army can re-enlist under the following provisions:

1. In grade, within ninety (90) days from date of discharge.

2. Re-enlistment allowance "within ninety (90) days from date of discharge," of fifty ($50.00) dollars for each year of service from, if any, last payment of re-enlistment allowance.

3. Furlough, within twenty (20) days from date of discharge under the following provisions:

4. Length of continuous active enlisted service with the periods of re-enlistment furlough granted, follows: 6 months, under 18 months, 30 days; 18 months, under 30 months, 60 days; 30 months and over, 90 days.

Any man in the ERC out of the service more than ninety (90) days at the time of enlistment is not entitled to the enlistment bonus, or the enlistment furlough.

Any enlisted man in the ERC enlisted in the U. S. Army within twenty (20) days interim between the date of discharge and enlistment in the Regular Army is entitled to the furlough and enlistment bonus.

Readjustment Center

Pending the completion of a new building now under construction at Ann Arbor, the Veterans' Readjustment Center will be located on a floor of the University Hospital, Ann Arbor. The floor is now staffed and the Readjustment Center is ready to receive patients requiring treatment for emotional disturbances. Veterans requiring this care will be admitted upon the recommendation of the Director of a local Veterans' Clinic. Veterans can secure complete details at local counseling centers.

Employment Outside U. S.

Government agencies employing civilians on projects located outside the continental limits of the United States make such appointments under special authority. Such appointments are usually outside the jurisdiction of the United States Civil Service Commission and application should be made directly to the Washington office of the department concerned.

For overseas employment with the War Department, application should be made to the Overseas Branch, Civilian Personnel Division, Office of the Secretary of War, Washington, D. C. Applications for overseas appointments with the Navy Department (other than the Pearl Harbor Navy Yard) should be sent to the Director of Civilian Personnel, Navy Department, Washington, D. C. For appointment at the Pearl Harbor Navy Yard, applications should be sent to the Recorder, Labor Board, Pearl Harbor Navy Yard, Territory of Hawaii.

Appointments in Puerto Rico and the Panama Canal Zone are handled by the Compandant, 15th Naval District, Balboa, Canal Zone.

Employment in Alaska is under the jurisdiction of the Eleventh Civil Service Region, 427 Central Building, Seattle 4, Washington, and inquiries should be directed to that office.

For overseas employment with other agencies, applications should be submitted to the Director of Personnel of the particular department in Washington, D .C.

HANDSOME NAVAL GIFT

"Around the World the Hard Way," a 15-page account of a voyage of the Liberty ship, Philip Barbour, was presented recently to Ensign Robert Redecker, U. S. Marines, by his captain, S. W. Keate. Ensign Redecker is spending a 30-day leave with Mrs. Redecker at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brelsford, 212 Pilgrim and from here will report back for duty at New York. The Liberty ship left New Orleans, Jan. 5, 1945, and was back at Norfolk, Va., Jan. 10, 1946, traveling 32,000 miles, touching six continents, visiting 17 ports, crossed three oceans, twelve seas and numerous bays and gulfs.
