Senior Walther League Organizes

The Senior Walther League of the Redeemer Lutheran church was organized Friday evening, Jan. 11. The following officers were elected: Ray Fravel, president; Doris McKee, secretary; and Nancy Burns, treasurer. This league has been formed for young people of this church who are 15 years of age or older. It was decided at this meeting that the senior league would act as counselors for the Junior Walther League which consists primarily of young people from the age of 13 to 17. The social program to date has not been planned very extensively. At present the leagueers plan a bowling party Jan. 27 and a concert Feb. 2.

Variety Show To Be Given Friday Night At Barnum School

The Barnum Junior High School Parent-Teachers' association today announced that as its annual money raising project it would present a Variety Show. The date has been set as Friday evening, Jan. 19, and the place as Barnum school auditorium. Funds realized go into the general treasury to assist with various activities and also for a special gift to the school. The program will include four different numbers with several hundred students participating at different times. In addition there will be a magician to add interest to the evening. Tickets are being handled through the school pupils. Arnold Bernick will direct the numbers by the Junior High School band and Victor Ulrich will direct the song numbers of the Girl's Glee Club and the special chorus. Coach Jack Brotzman will present a group of students in a tumbling act. William Mainland is chairman of the ways and means committee; Miss Mariel Brans and Malcolm Tindall are in charge of tickets and sales and Harold Novie is in charge of ushers.

FERNDALE STAMP CLUB

The Ferndale Stamp Club is to hold its annual exhibition in Lincoln High School on Jan. 20 from noon to 10 p. m. The display will be in the school cafeteria and open to all persons interested. Club manager J. Gibbs of Ferndale is club president. He states there will be a number of large exhibits as well as many of the smaller ones from persons making stamp collecting a hobby. Members of the club will be present to answer questions and assist anyone interested in starting the stamp collection hobby.

PLAN AMATEUR CONTEST

The Clawson P.T.A. announced an Amateur Contest for the evening of Friday, February 22, as its big financial project of the year, to raise funds with which to carry on the P.T.A. projects. Many fine favors are listed for the various winners, with all kinds of amateur talent hoped for on the program. Features are hoped for from all over the area, according to the committee, with applications for places on the program to be received up to February 1. Applications may be mailed to Box 115, Clawson, or persons interested may phone Lincoln 2-2824 for information. The program will be in the auditorium of Clawson High School.

Club Notes

The A.A.U.W. Spanish Conversation class meets every Wednesday at 8 p. m. A new class in Conversation Problems will meet at 1:30 p. m. on Thursday, Jan. 17. Those interested should call Mrs. R. M. Richardson at 3496-W.

At the meeting of Birmingham Lodge No. 44, F. A. M., this evening at the Masonic Temple there is to be work in the Fellowship degree. Refreshments are to be served at the close of the session.

An old time box social will be sponsored by the Keystone Class of the First Methodist church on Monday evening, Jan. 21, at 8 o'clock. Boxes are to include a complete dinner and utensils for two. Coffee will be served. The name of the preparer of each box should be written on the box and these boxes will be auctioned off. Colored money will provide the entertainment for the evening. Proceeds will be used for the new church building fund.

The Holy Name P.T.A. will hold its monthly meeting next Monday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. Teachers will be present at the meeting and all parents are being urged to attend. Refreshments will be served and a program is being arranged. The nursery will be open to care for pre-school children.

The League of Women Voters will meet next Monday at the Community House, 927 Pierce street. All members are urged to attend the meeting.

SPEAKS TO ART CLASS

The Saturday morning art class had as its guest last week Miss Frances Van Tassel, who is a county supervisor for the Kellogg Health Foundation and who is active in the field of child psychology. Miss Van Tassel spoke on the life of Sir Thomas Lawrence, using his famous painting, "Pinker," as a typical example of his work.

Burnet-Cox Wedding Is Colorful Event of Jan. 12

Mary Rutledge Burnet, daughter of Mrs. William Shannon Burnet, of Alexandria, Va., and Captain S. C. and the late Mr. Burnet, were married Saturday afternoon, January 12, at four o'clock in St. John's Episcopal church, Washington, D. C. to Lieut. Roderick Howard Cox, USNR. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. M. Howard Cox, of East Maple road, and the late Mr. Cox.

The candlelight ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. Leslie Glenn before an altar banked with white snowdrops. Given in marriage by her brother, Andrew William Burnet, the bride wore a gown of white satin, finished with a sweetheart neckline and embroidered with seed pearls. Her fingertip veil fell from a Juliet cap and she wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

GIRL SCOUTS

Troop 9 of Walnut Lake started the new year with the following officers:

Scoutmaster, Barbara Stradinger; treasurer, Janet Thorne; press agent, Barbara Thorne; American flag bearer, Patricia Kemp; American color guard, Barbara Wilson; troop flag bearer, Betty Brasett; troop flag guard, Joyce Lee Noonan, and scrap book custodian, Beverly Stradinger.

The Girl Scouts are having their meetings at the home of their leader, Mrs. Herman Schwarz, to enable them to carry out their spring program of homemaking.

Troop No. 28

Troop No. 28 at Pierce School made woven book marks recently. Lily of the Valley crests were distributed to the girls. At a recent meeting instructions were given on how to get a book from the library, how to feed pets and help mother around the house. This is all toward hedges for which the girls are working.

Her cascade bouquet was of stephanotis and gardenias. Mrs. Robert M. Hall was sister of the bridegroom and Helen Beal, of the bride, was matron-of-honor and Margaret Rathbone was bridesmaid. The bridesmaids included Mrs. Carolyn B. Jeffords, sister of the bride; Mary McQueen, cousin of the bride; and Ellen Beal. The bridesmaids wore dresses of blue velvet headbands. They carried arm bouquets of red roses. The bridesmaids wore dresses of blue velvet and they too carried red roses.

LL Comdr. Malcolm V. Otis of Birmingham was best man and the ushers included Henry Nichol, Lieut. Comdr. Elbert B. O'Boegge, Lieut. Comdr. Delbert L. Gibson of Washington, D.C., and Daniel Vandermeulen of Cambridge, Mass.

Reception was held at the Washington Club immediately following the ceremony. Receiving with the bride party, Mrs. Burnet wore a floor length dress of turquoise blue with fuchsia gloves and hat. Mrs. Cox chose a royal blue gown with matching hat and accessories. Each mother wore a corsage which carried red roses.

When the couple left for a wedding trip in New England, Mrs. Cox wore a dark red suit, brown accessories, and a corsage of brown orchids. Upon returning she and her husband will make their home in Washington, D. C.
