

Numerous Events Fete Bride-Elect Natalie Seaholm

Mrs. Guy Parker and Mrs. Alfred Labadie gave the last of the parties in honor of bride-elect Natalie Seaholm on Tuesday when they entertained at luncheon at the Detroit Athletic Club.

Miss Seaholm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Seaholm of Kennewas road, will speak her marriage vows to William B. Hulbert this Saturday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hulbert of Brown street, will give the rehearsal dinner at Devon Gables the evening before the wedding.

Among the events in honor of Miss Seaholm were a tea and linen shower given by Mary Virginia Lawson in her home on Birmingham road Dec. 15; a luncheon at the Detroit Boat Club by Mrs. Thomas E. Nevin and her daughter, Mrs.

William Taylor; and a combination crystal and silver shower and luncheon for Natalie and Patricia Burke on Dec. 29. Susan Averill was hostess at her home on Riverview road for this shower.

The C. R. Obermeyer home on Kennewas road was the scene of a tea and table top shower on Jan. 5. Mrs. Obermeyer, Mrs. Walter Fisher, and Mrs. H. H. Gilbert were the hostesses. On Jan. 6 Mrs. George Stelzer and Marjory Walton entertained at a Sunday night supper and miscellaneous shower for Natalie and Patricia Burke at the home of Mrs. Stelzer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Franklin, on Windrop lane.

Mrs. John B. Taylor honored the bride-elect with a dessert bridge and kitchen shower on Friday evening, Jan. 11, and on Saturday afternoon, Jan. 12. Mrs. Guy W. Jemisch was hostess at a tea and paper shower.

Nancy Hanson Selected As D.A.R. Good Citizen From Baldwin High School

The results of the annual contest for the D.A.R. Good Citizenship award have been announced in Baldwin High School, Roosevelt High School, Keego Harbor, Claxson High School and Log Cabin High School, Clawson. These four contestants are sponsored by the Piety Hill Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Birmingham.

Nancy Hanson won the award at Baldwin High School and was given the "Good Citizen" pin at an honor assembly by Mrs. C. W. Wacker, past regent of the local chapter.

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hanson, 5643 Putnam drive, Walled Lake. She has been a member of the D.A.R. since she was 12 years old. She is president of the Girls' Athletic Association, chairman of the Bulletin Board for the Student Congress, and was selected as a delegate to Wolverine Girls' State last summer. She was chosen as a member of a colony while there. This fall Nancy was inducted into the National Honor Society and is now president of the Teen Cantin.

Others Are Honored

The senior class recently selected Beverly Vele for the Good Citizen of Roosevelt High School, Rego Harlan of Keego Harbor, and Mrs. Harry Veal, 1936 Cass road, Keego Harbor. She is a member of the D.A.R. and is active in the Girls' Athletic Group. She is taking both the college preparatory and business course and expects to take special work in the field of business.

Claxson High School chose Dorothy Hanen, the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hanen of Goodale court, Clawson. She is president of the Student Council, a member of the National Honor Society and a member of the Piety Hill Chapter of the Girls' Athletic Association. She still finds time to be a cheerleader and an active member of the Girl Reserves.

At Log Cabin School

Betty McGee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. McKechnie of Royal Oak, was the good citizen chosen at Log Cabin. She is a cheerleader and has been secretary of the Log Cabin Annual this year, was chairman of A.W.V. is a cheer leader and has been secretary of her class all through high school. In addition, she is a five member of a girls' baseball team.

The good citizens were each chosen from among three candidates who were elected in each school by the senior class. The D.A.R. then makes the selection of one, based on service, dependability and character.

In March these four good citizens will attend the state D.A.R. convention in Grand Rapids with Mrs. Stede Sellers, regent, and Mrs. H. D. McLeese, good citizenship chairman, of Piety Hill Chapter, D.A.R. One good citizen from Michigan will be chosen to attend the National Congress of the D.A.R. at Atlantic City in May.

Musical Benefit Concert To Feature Faye E. Smith

The benefit concert which will be presented by the Birmingham Musicale at 8:30 Tuesday evening, Jan. 22, at the Community House, will feature the duo-piano team of Alta Lynn Stager and Maud Skinner and, in keeping with the Musicale's policy of encouraging and supporting young artists, Faye Elizabeth Smith, young mezzo-soprano, Robert E. ### Patricia Lou Burke Honored At Dessert Bridge and Shower

Mrs. Aaron H. Webster and her daughter, Mrs. Carl E. Rhodes, were hostesses at a dessert bridge and lingerie shower honoring bride-elect Patricia Lou Burke at Mrs. Webster's home on Fairfax road last Friday evening.

The buffet table was covered with a white organza and linen cloth and centered with a large hat box which contained the shower gifts. This was covered with pale pink satin and tulle, and ruffles of tulle carried out the fragile effect. White tapered, with small silver bells tied to them with pink tulle ribbon, lighted the scene.

Among those invited to the shower were Mrs. Robert Skinner, Mrs. John D. Burke, mother of the bride; Ginger Calgrove, Barbara Sauer, Mrs. George Stelzer, Marjory Walton, Mrs. Tod Reed, Nancy Kirk, Barbara Pegg, Margaret Newell, Mrs. Thelma Vives Zimmerman, Carolyn Wright, Jane Longstaff, Natalie Seaholm, Charles E. Lewis, the bridegroom's mother; Mrs. Harry A. Webster, and Mrs. William Merrill.

Patricia will speak her marriage vows to Charles Wilson Lewis on the afternoon of Saturday, Jan. 26, at St. Joseph's Episcopal church in Detroit.
