Natalie Seaholm Speaks
Vows at Lovely Service

One of the most beautiful weddings of the season took place Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when Natalie Seaholm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Seaholm of Birmingham, spoke her vows to William Buncher Hulbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roberts Hulbert of Birmingham.

Dr. W. Glen Harris and Dr. David Thompson, uncle of the bridegroom, read the double ring ceremony before a solid bank of huckleberry leaves, eubotium ferns and palms. Four cathedral candleholders held tall white tapers and on either side were standards of white gladioli, madragons and baby chrysanthemums. Madonna lilies, with huckleberry foliage and white satin streamers, marked the pews.

Mrs. Manley Tyson sang a group of selections before the ceremony. To the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin," the sanctuary choir, directed and accompanied by Mrs. Mildred Ritter, preceded the bridal party down the aisle.

Natalie, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a princess styled gown of antique ivory satin. Long fitted panels, softened at the neckline with ruffling on either side, extended into a circular train in the back. Sweethearts and distinguished the bodice and the sleeves were long and fitted with double points over the shoulders.

The long veil of illusion fell from a coronet of chantilly lace, which was part of the bride's mother's wedding gown, and which was edged with more of the same lace. White cavalinas, centered with a gardenia, and surrounded with a white satin trim, made up the bridal bouquets.

Wedgewood blue-brocaded taffeta was worn by Gretta Seaholm, sister of the bride and maid-of-honor. Her gown was made on princess lines, with a sweetheart neckline and a gathered skirt.

Margorie Walton and Mrs. Lawrence Hulbert, bridesmaids, wore gowns identical to that of the maid-of-honor but their bouquets matched their gowns and their roses were of a deeper shade.

Lawrence A. Hulbert was his brother's best man and Harold C. Stillier of Des Moines, Iowa, Holmden Drury, Fletcher Phillips and Thomas Seaholm, brother of the bride, were ushers.

gown, with a matching feather hat, for her son's wedding. She, too, had a waist corsage of roses.

When the young couple left for their honeymoon in Florida and New York, Mrs. Hulbert wore an aqua colored sheer wool dress, a beaver coat and hat, and a corsage of gardenias. The Hulberts will make their home in Kalamazoo.

Local Children Present Musicals

Mr. and Mrs. Homer H. Dedo have issued invitations to friends in Detroit and Birmingham for a musical to be presented by their children, Herbert, Dick, and Daktie, next Sunday afternoon, Jan. 28, at four o'clock, in the studio of Thylla Curtis-Stanford, 518 Biddlegrade road.

Herbert, aged 12, will play two Preludes and Purges by Beethoven, "Toccata" by Paradies, and a group of compositions by Schumann.

Dick, 11 years old, will contribute a Mozart Sonata and several selections from the works of Beethoven.

Six year old Daktie will play character sketches for the piano from "Elves and Fairies," by Alec Rowley.

Herbert and Dick will close the program, playing compositions written for two pianos, "Cebra Dance," by Beethoven; "Funeral March for a Marionette," by Grieg; and "Witch," by Tchaikovsky.
