Senior Class Gift Is Scene Painted By Robert Morrow

The senior class has chosen as its departing gift a picture painted by Bob Morrow, talented salutatorian of the class.

The scene is the beautiful ravine at the end of North Bates and was painted by Morrow last summer. The picture, which has been exhibited at Cranbrook, was purchased by the class from Morrow and will be framed with an inscription naming the class and date of dedication.

BALDWIN HIGHLIGHTS

Hi Kids,

Once again we are living normal, happy fives; final exams are over. So Annie just sits in an easy chair which is all she has the energy to do, and thinks about last week end. The Ice Carnival was well worth waiting for, and Mary Kay Smith was a beautiful queen. King Bill Saffell really showed his prowess on the ice, while Mary Vorberg, Lewis Booth, Janice Thomas, Nancy Holmes, Joan Gove, and Peggy Gould, the queen's court, made a very attractive group of spectators.

Annie saw Anne Gardener, Roger Wills, Sandy DaSef, and Spencer DeVault dashing to the shack for hot cocoa as soon as the coronation was finished.

After the closest basketball game of the year, crowds of jubilant fans flocked to the Ranch Room. Nancy Kotts, Franny Mead, Rip VanWinkle, Dotty Davis, Gina Reinhart, and Sue Hastreiter showed each other card tricks while Bill Manning, Anne Woodruff, Liz Lynd, Dave Ballentine, Dodo Booth, Bob Woodruff, Betty Tjaarda, and Bob King tried to see what the juke box had to offer.

It was good to have a Saturday Night Dance on the agenda again, and Jane Wilcox, Jack Zinser, Pat Sanderson, Don Runkel, Margaret Erwin, George Burdick, Jo Kates, Jack Hardy, Joan Lochamaer, and Bill Kindley stood spellbound watching the jam session. Looking just as pretty as a shamrock, Sharon Murphy walked in the door with Lee Daly, Jeannot Barnes, and Chuck Houff.

Having cokes 'n' laughs during intermission, Ginny O'Brien, Bruce Robb, Jo Dasher, Dick Halsted, Margie Hearn, and Ronnie Render waited for the band to come back.

Have fun,
Annie.

Port Huron Game Is Big Event for Friday Evening

By BOB DAESCHNER

In a game that will have a decided bearing on the Eastern Michigan League standings, Birmingham plays host to an aggressive Port Huron five tomorrow night in Baldwin gym.

So far this year, Port Huron has a record of five wins and two defeats. One of the losses came at the hands of Lansing Sexton, state class A champions last year.

As far as league competition goes, the Big Reds have gone undefeated, and Maples are going all out in an attempt to hand them their first setback.

Although Port Huron has only three returning lettermen, the season's record proves that the Reds are a team to be reckoned with.

The lettermen include Gerald Alexander, John Hazely, and Andy Balogh.

Colin Campbell New Barnum Junior High Student Council Head

Colin Campbell was elected president of the Barnum Junior High Student Council at the recent student election. Colin lives at 655 Lakeview and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Colin Campbell, Sr. He has been active in the Student Council and athletic programs of the school for the past two years. Keith Little, his opponent, gave him a close race for the office.

Jack Adams, an 8A student, defeated Carolyn Hardig for vice-president, while Janet Mills won from Roberta Connor for the office of secretary. Richard Shallberg, an 8B student, defeated four other candidates, Virginia Carter, Barbara Hughes, Ed Matus, and Jim Patterson, for the treasurer's office.

The homeroom representatives will be elected the second week of next semester.

MARCH OF DIMES

The March of Dimes drive for infantile paralysis was held last week in Baldwin High School with $101.87 the total collected. Every student was given a card with five slots in which to put contributions and the cards were then returned to homeroom teachers.

Birmingham Reserves Win 5th Straight Game by Beating East Detroit 53 to 40

By DANA ELCAR

Blazing to their fifth straight victory, the Birmingham Reserves overpowered East Detroit 53 to 40 in a fast, hard-fought basketball contest last Friday night in Baldwin gym.

The Detroiters racked up 20 points in the first half while the Maples got 17. Coming from behind in the third quarter, the Maples Reserves scored 19 points which gave them a tough-to-get three point lead.

The Maples' basket spree continued in the fourth period as they sewed up the game by raising the final tally to 53 points.

Annual Tea For Seniors Is Held Sunday Afternoon

The annual tea in honor of the graduating seniors and their parents was given at the Community House last Sunday afternoon.

A white cloth covered the table which was decorated with red and white flowers. Sandwiches and cakes were served with tea.

General chairman of the tea was Mrs. Emerson Brown. Helping with the serving were Mrs. John Chapman, Mrs. Amos Gregory, Mrs. Charles Butters, Mrs. John Martz and Mrs. Manley Tyson.

"Junior Miss" Picked As Next School Play

"Junior Miss" is the selection for the all school play to be given the evenings of March 28 and 29.

Miss Ruth Hull, director, chose this play from many because of its audience appeal.

"Junior Miss" ran five years on Broadway, and was a very successful moving picture.

No parts have been assigned as yet. Tryouts will be held next week.

"We're frank to admit... telephone service could be a lot better ...and it will be"

There have been surprisingly few complaints about telephone service during and since the war. However, we know that during certain hours of the day, long distance lines are overcrowded and calls are delayed. Sometimes there are so many local calls that there is no dial tone immediately when people pick up the receiver, or operators are unable to answer promptly.

Because of war-caused shortages, 115,000 Michigan families who have applied for service haven't yet been able to get it. Generally, we still can't supply extension telephones without delay. Many customers who wanted individual-line service have had to take party lines.

Individuals and businesses, putting up with these inconveniences, have been most understanding.

Now Michigan Bell is at work on a 5-year $120,000,000 expansion and improvement program to assure you the kind of service you want in the future.

Money to finance that program must come from thrifty people willing to invest their savings in Bell System securities. This means that telephone earnings must be sufficient to attract investment dollars. But if prospects for future telephone earnings are unattractive compared with those of other companies, investors will place their savings elsewhere.

Too long a continuation of a rate of earnings substantially below that of other industries would weaken our ability to raise the money required to meet expected telephone needs. So the future quality of your telephone service depends on telephone rates sufficient to produce earnings attractive to investors.

The telephone bill is so small an item in their regular expenditures that Michigan Bell customers want really good service even though it might cost a trifle more than they would need to pay for inferior service.
