

Editorial Staff Is Busy on this Year's Edition of "Piper" The first meeting of the editorial staff of "Piper" Baldwin yearbook, was held Wednesday, Jan. 16, after school. Miss Vida McGiffin, faculty adviser, and the co-editors, Jan Gill and Edith Kendall, supervised the meeting. Forty students were present. Those working on the "Piper" for the second or third year were Jan Gill, Edith Kendall, Doty Adams, Frances Newell, Doty D'Avia, Joanne Chapel, Grace Mack, Betty Hooper, Helen Mack, Anne Spiegel, and Mary Vorber. A calendar for pictures was set up and at four o'clock all but previous "Piper" workers adjourned. Household Goods of any kind are easily sold by using the Economy Classified Ads!

Sports Showup With the January graduation coming to a close, Birmingham will lose four outstanding athletes. Most prominent of these is Bud Grogg, three letterman in tennis and captain of last year's squad. Gordon Smith and Larry Pottery were a great help in football. Neil Spicer is last but not least, as he was one of the mainstays of the soccer squad, running the hundred yard dash, the 220, and a leg on the relay team that tied Fennelle's for the League championship.

'World's Tallest' Team The "world's tallest" basketball team, from Valparaiso U. Madison, Ind., greets Madison Square Boys Club members at Madison Square Garden. Wally Warrick, left, 6-foot-10; Milt Schuch, 6-9; J. A. Chambers, 6-10; Jim Alike, 6-7; Mita Hansas, 6-8.

Plenty of Upsets In School Court Battles Last Week Upsets were the order of the day as Holy Name defeated Adams 14-11 and Quanton toppled Pierce's 19-17 in the elementary league's basketball games last Saturday in Baldwin's gym. Holy Name's unorthodox defense bottled up Adams' scoring star, Tom Tracey, allowing him to score but three points. The Trojan's defense, however, did not prove as strong, letting Van Peltz of Holy Name run up a total of eight points. George Favey and Don Dickson scored four points each for Adams, and Dupris netted two field goals for Holy Name.

What Is a Boy? After a male baby has grown out of long clothes and triangles and has acquired pants, freckles, and so much dirt that relatives do not dare to kiss it between meals it becomes a BOY. A boy can swim like a fish, run like a deer, climb like a squirrel, walk like a mule, bellow like a bull, eat like a pig, or act like a jackass, according to climatic conditions. He is a piece of skin stretched over an appetite. A noise, covered with amudges. He is called a tornado, because he comes at the most unexpected times, hits the most unexpected places, and leaves everything a wreck behind him. He is a growing animal of superlative promise, to be fed and watered, and kept warm. He is a joy forever, a periodic nuisance, the problem of our times, the hope of a nation. Every boy is evidence that God is not discouraged by man. Were it not for boys, the newspapers would go unread, and a thousand picture shows would go bankrupt. Boys are useful in running errands. A boy can easily do the family errands with the aid of five or six adults. The zest with which a boy does an errand is equalled only by the speed of a turtle on a July day. The boy is a natural spectator. He watches parades, fires, fights, ball games, automobiles, boats, and air planes with equal fervor, but not the clock. Boys faithfully imitate their dads in spite of all efforts to teach them good manners. A boy, if not washed too often and if kept in a cool, quiet place after each accident will survive broilings, bones, horns, swimming holes, fights, and nine helpings of pie. —Herbert Smith, Portsmouth (Va.) Handsome Trophy For Track Stars Given High School By Fred Zoellin In Memory Of Brother, Tom, Killed In Train Accident Before a silent and impressed student body, Fred Zoellin presented a track trophy to the school in memory of his brother, Tom Zoellin, track star who was fatally injured in a train accident last August. The trophy, donated to the school by the Zoellin family and Tom's friends, is a statue of the winged-footed Mercury, carrying the spirit of fame and the torch signifying inspiration. Fred, state champion pole vaulter and holder of the school's record in this event walked through the assembly to set the trophy in the case which represents Birmingham's great track past. Plan Yearly Trophy Each year the name of the winner of this memorial award will be inscribed upon the base of the trophy and will also receive from the Zoellin family a medal carrying a replica of the trophy. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zoellin have been staunch supporters of all Baldwin sports. Fred Jr. was also a fine basketball player as well as a champion track man, Tom, or "Bucky," as he was called, was a cross country letter man, and ran the high and low hurdles besides a leg on the relay team last spring.

Basketball Squad Presents Assembly The Birmingham varsity basketball squad took time out in preparation for the forthcoming Port Huron game to present the annual basketball assembly at Baldwin yesterday morning under the direction of Coach Lloyd A. Cooper. When each player had been introduced the boys went through the various plays in slow motion. Birmingham's offensive tactics were demonstrated first with the fast break, Celtic, meanwhile, and out-of-defense, the zone, man-to-man, and pressing were shown. Those who participated in the assembly were Chuck Murray, Ed Davey, Bud Gasser, Leon Thurston, Roger Reynolds, Dan Grigg, Jack Hardy, Jack Filling, Gene Sutton, Dick Daeschner, and Jack Moore. DETROIT TOWN HALL "What's Happening in Washington" will be the subject of a lecture to be given by James G. Crowley, commentator, at Detroit Town Hall in the Fisher Theatre Wednesday morning, Jan. 30, at 11 o'clock. Crowley broadcasts basketball twice weekly under the title "Your Washington Man," and his pungent comments on national affairs are relayed over two leading local stations. CIVIC CHORUS CONCERT The Detroit Oratorio Society, a civic chorus of 70 Detroit voices, will present a concert featuring Adolph Busch, violinist, Friday evening, Jan. 25, at Music Hall. "Partita in D Minor" and "E. Major Concerto for Violin" will be performed by Busch. The chorus will sing "The Rio Grande" by Constant Lambert and Bach's fragmentary cantata, "Now Hush the Grace."

Mrs. Harold Houck Entertains Cheer Leaders At Party Last night the cheer leader's squad was entertained by Mrs. Harold Houck, formerly Miss Gerda Hansen, who has been in charge of the cheer leaders at Baldwin High School for several years. After an evening at the movies, the squad went to the home of Bob Doyle where cakes and sandwiches were served. Gloria Jean Maxwell and Mary Jean Foxworth are the graduating members, while Janet Roosevelt, Janice Thomas, Lee Elgar, Katharine Daeschner, Jo Flies, Gretta Sealhorn, Lloyd Appel, and Bob Doyle will constitute the cheer leader's staff next semester. Mrs. Houck is leaving the Baldwin teaching staff to reside in Oxford, Michigan. CHRISTMAS CARDS DRIVE Gay and colorful Christmas cards to be used for educational purposes in European countries, filtered Baldwin's classrooms last week in response to the drive sponsored by the Save the Children Federation. Approximately 50 pounds of cards collected by Mary Corin, chairman, will be cut and made into scrapbooks. These will be sent to a French school because of the lack of reading material over there.
