Voice and Piano Selections Will Be Musicales Features

The Birmingham Musicales meeting will be held on January 10 at 8 o'clock at the Community House. Mrs. Joseph deBruyn will open the program with a short history of opera. This will be followed by a group of eight-handed two-piano arrangements of operatic music. These will be played by Mrs. Ernst Scheyer, Mrs. Edward Laske, Mrs. Leland Bradley, and Mrs. John H. Shiner. Mrs. Scheyer studied in Holland and was a pupil of Leopold Godowski in New York. Mrs. Laske and Mrs. Bradley are graduates of the University of Michigan Music School, both working under Joseph Brinkman. Mrs. Shiner studied with Howard Wells and Rosseter Cole.

Mrs. John C. Toomey will open her group by singing "Face, Face" from "La Forza Del Destino," by Verdi. Last year in Detroit Mrs. Toomey sang one of the leading roles in Dvorak's opera "Rusalka." Also at this meeting Mrs. Phillip Ross of Ann Arbor, the State Chairman of Music in Hospitals, will speak on musical therapy. The money raised by the Birmingham Musicales Benefit Concert, to be held on January 22, is to be donated to further this project of musical therapy for invalid veterans.

Craig-Dewyes Vows Spoken In Lovely Holiday Service

Christmas greens lined the chancel and gilded candelabras and branches of evergreen filled the altar vases when Shirley Orchard Ridge read, came down the aisle of Christ Church Cathedral on the arm of Father last Friday evening, December 28th, to be given in marriage to Harry M. Dewyes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Dewyes of Detroit. The Rev. Charles H. Ladigan read the service at eight o'clock.

The bridegroom was of lustrous candlelight satin cut, an simple classic lines, with a fitted bodice, an off the shoulder neckline with a row of silk machine, and long fitted sleeves. The long full train was cut with a peacock train.

The long veil of matching illusion and the short face veil fell from a Juliet cap which was made from part of the veil worn by the bride's mother at her own wedding. Shirley carried a white wedding bouquet.

Proceeding the bride down the aisle as bridesmaids were Mrs. H. Leonard Miller, daughter of the bride's father, and Mrs. A. L. Hommes of Toledo. Their gowns were fashioned like that of the maid-of-honor but were in a Christmas green shade and their matching hats were in white with white ostrich tips and streamers. They also carried holly bouquets.
