Mrs. Pierre Nys

Detroit and granddaughter of Mrs. Charles Kellogg Latham of Birmingham, and Lieut. Pierre Emile Nys, USAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pierre C. Nys of Hasselt, Belgium, in marriage.

The Rev. Ralph V. Barton read the double ring ceremony at 11 o'clock Friday morning, Jan. 25, when the bride and groom, in the presence of the family and a few close friends followed.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore the simple, ice white satin gown which her aunt, Mrs. William Richardson, wore at her marriage in Pontiac two years ago. It was fashioned with a square neckline and a slight train. The fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a Juliet cap. White roses, lilies and gardenias made up the bridal bouquet.

Miss Helen C. Latham was her niece's only attendant. She wore a rose satin gown with a duobelt face veil and a bouquet of matching gardenias. Lieut. Ray C. Adams was best man and the ushers included John C. Wendell and Lieut. T. M. McLane of New York. For her wedding, trip Mrs. Nys chose a gray tweed suit, a black coat and black accessories. After the honeymoon the couple will be at the family estate of the bridegroom's mother near Norfolk, Va. As soon as possible, Lieut. Nys and his wife will leave for Belgium, where Lieut. Nys plans to continue his studies at Louvain University.
