Rosemary Shields Becomes Bride of Lester Lohmeier

Holy Name church was the scene Saturday morning of the marriage of Rosemary Shields, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Shields of Blue street to Lester Lohmeier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lohmeier of Detroit. The ceremony took place at 9:30 with Father Barton reading the service.

The bride was escorted by the aisle by her father. She wore a gown of white nylon with lace insets and fashioned with a portrait neckline, full skirt and circular train. Her full-length veil of white illusion fell from a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and snapdragons.

Kathleen Shields was her sister's maid-of-honor. Her gown was of pink net over satin and with it she wore a pink hair hat and carried a colonial bouquet of burgundy carnations.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Joseph McLave of Galt, Ont., and Mrs. Gerald Roudau of Birmingham, wore gowns of blue net over satin with blue hair hats and carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations.

Shields, flower girl, was dressed in blue silk and in her hair she wore a halo of sweetpeas and roses. She carried a basket of rose petals.

Harold Lohmeier assisted as best man and ushers were Earl and Edward Lohmeier, also brothers of the bridegroom.

A reception at the Altamare House of the church followed the ceremony. Mrs. Shields wore a street-length black linen dress, a black sequin hat, black accessories and a corsage of roses and sweetpeas. On their return they will make their home in Ferndale.

Miss Olivia Wentzel, 24, Eldorado, Ill., one of five working women plumbers in the nation, is shown displaying a tool of her trade at Illinois Master Plumbers Association meeting in Chicago. She can do anything in the trade a man can "except, maybe some of the heavy lifting," she says.

Peggy Lind and Charles E. Wilson Jr. to Wed July 20

Peggy Gene Lind, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Muir W. Lind of Mohagan drive, has chosen Saturday, July 20, as the date of her marriage to Charles Erwin Wilson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wilson of W. Long Lake road. The ceremony will take place at Christ Church Cranbrook at 4 p. m. with the Rev. Charles H. Cadigan officiating. A reception will follow at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

Peggy has asked her sister, Elizabeth, to be maid-of-honor and bridesmaids will be Mrs. Phillip Hoyle of Asheville, N. C., Audrey Esh of Elizabeth, N. J., Frances Frisbie of Hartford, Conn., Sally Booth, Jean Grindley, Peggy Codd, Sally Ann Farquhar, and Nancy Loud.

Best Man will be Douglas Fletcher and guests will be seated by Fred Booth, Robert Jacobson, Richard Mixer, Renwick Knox, Charles High of Midland, and Harvey Baumgardner of Royal Oak.

The first of many parties planned in Peggy's honor was a bridge tea Tuesday at which Sally Ann Farquhar was hostess at the Women's City Club. Mrs. Edward Wilson entertained for the bride-elect at her home in Oxford on Wednesday.

Today Mrs. Theron Van Dusen and Mrs. Edward Rothman will be joint-hostesses at a picnic at the Van Dusen farm at Metamora and tomorrow Erwin's sisters, Mrs. Curtis Matthews and Mrs. William Hartraves, will be co-hostesses at a luncheon for Peggy at Mrs. Matthews' home.

A swimming party followed by dinner and dancing at the Boat Club is planned by Dick Mixer for Saturday evening in honor of the young couple. Monday, July 15, Mrs. Harry B. Coen will give a luncheon and Tuesday Mrs. Phillip Hoyle will also entertain at luncheon at the Wilson home. "Long Meadow." The following day Jean Grindley and Nancy Loud will be luncheon hostesses for Peggy.

Thursday, July 18, Peggy Codd will tote the bride-elect at luncheon and the same evening Elizabeth Lind will tote the spinsters had an extra-added thrill. In addition to the many activities planned for them by the ranch, they saw the Snake river scene from "Bad Basin" being filmed by MGM and met Margaret O'Brien and Carol Ann Beery, daughter of Wallace Beery.

Girls To Leave Thursday, Aug. 11 For Teton Valley

Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills girls who will leave Thursday, August 11, for Teton Valley Ranch, Kelly, Wyo., are Margie Barton, Dolores Booth, Jeanne Cadigan, Judy Henderson, Elizabeth Lind, Jan Mooby, Judy Patterson, Ann Sauer, Barbara Watkins, Norma Jean Waterbury, and Sally Roseberry of Franklin. Counselors will be Donis Murray and Marjorie Patterson, and in charge of the group will be two physical education instructors from Swarthmore college. The group will be at the ranch until Labor Day.

This is the fourth year that groups of girls from Birmingham and surrounding areas have gone to the ranch. Last year the group had an extra-added thrill. In addition to the many activities planned for them by the ranch, they saw the Snake river scene from "Bad Basin" being filmed by MGM and met Margaret O'Brien and Carol Ann Beery, daughter of Wallace Beery.
