

Men in Service

Editor's Note—Men in the armed forces, and parents, are invited to send us news of the boys, whereabouts and activities. Service men, scattered about the country, are hungry for news of their friends. Even the address of a newly-placed inducted man is of interest.

Re-Enlists In Navy

H. Stanley Ford, Jr., 640 Riveroak, was recently discharged from the Navy, and has now re-enlisted in the V-6, Fleet Engineer Reserve. When he enlisted two years ago, he was placed in a V-12 unit and sent to the University of Notre Dame, and the following year was placed in the N.R.O.T.C. at the university. He studied mechanical engineering, and expects to return there this fall to complete his education. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Ford.

Gets Navy Discharge

Edward Brungaber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis R. Brungaber, 940 Floyd street, was discharged from the Navy last week. He spent two years in the Navy under the V-5 and V-12 programs, and was sent to Teachers State Normal at Kalamazoo, and then to Iowa State College. He was a mechanical engineering student and expects to return to the school in the fall to get his degree. He plans to join the civilian N.R.O.T.C.

Glen A. Kendall, 1213 Dorchester, formerly with the Army of Occupation in Italy, has recently been released from service. Glen has been in the Army two years, having been stationed six months at Fort McClellan, Ala., and going directly overseas from there. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Kendall.

Gets Navy Release

Ensign Paul T. Smith, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul T. Smith, 489 Arzyle boulevard, recently received his discharge from the Navy. Paul spent almost two and one-half years in the Navy's V-12 program, studying at the University of Michigan, and at Northwestern University.

He intends to attend Michigan State college in the fall to obtain his degree in electrical engineering.

Ensign Bruce F. Randall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Randall, 1258 Dorchester avenue, has just been discharged from the Navy, after serving three years.

He enlisted under the V-12 program and was trained at Northwestern University, receiving his commission in January of 1945. For the past few months he has been stationed in Jacksonville, Florida.

Randall intends to resume his education at Denison University in Ohio this fall.

Discharged By Navy

Frederick E. Booth, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Booth, of 960 Harmon avenue, and former AETM 3/e of the Navy, has been discharged and is now at home with his parents.

He entered service 20 months ago, and after graduating from Corpus Christi, was an instructor at San Tjatro, Calif. He was also stationed at Casa 5, San Diego, Calif.

His plans are now to enter Yale in the fall, to pursue the study of electrical engineering.

Big Question Mark Over Bikini

Portentously the 50,000-foot atomic cloud forms a question mark as it dissipates in the Marshall Islands wind a short time after the bomb burst over Bikini Atoll. This Radio-Telephoto picture was taken from the press photographers' plane which hovered near.
