Constance Coulter Is Bride Of Charles Brand English

Bouquets of white delphinium and gladioli, and tall candelabra at each side of a screen of cyrbodium fern decorated the First Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Constance Dorothy Coulter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Claire Coulter of Lake Park drive, and Charles Brand English, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. English of Urbana, O. The young couple exchanged their vows before the Rev. W. Glen Harris at 3:00.

Beatrice Zwass
Mrs. Charles Brand English

The lovely bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace over taffeta fashioned with a sweetheart neckline long fitted sleeves, a short peplum over the full skirt and a circular train. Her triple-tiered veil of white illusion was held in place by a cap of heirloom lace and she carried a cascade of gardenias.

Virginia English of Urbana, O., maid-of-honor, and bridesmaids, Barbara Dewey of Detroit, Elaine Raiss of Grosse Pointe, and Virginia Councell of Cleveland, wore bouffant gowns of turquoise faille, fashioned with deep round necklines and cap sleeves. In their hair they wore garlands of sweetheart roses and shattered carnations.

Robert J. Janiga of Detroit, was best man and the guests were seated by George B. Woodman of Youngstown, O., Richard A. Morris of Kalamazoo, William R. North and Richard A. Stadler of Urbana, O., and two brothers of the bride, Sgt. James Coulter, and Donald Coulter.

The bridegroom's young brother, Edwin L. English, was ringbearer.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the garden of the Coulter home on Lake Park drive. Mrs. Coulter received her guests wearing a gown of grey crepe, fuchsia feather hat, and an orchid corsage. She was assisted by Mrs. English who wore a pale pink crepe gown with a pink and aqua flower hat and a corsage of rubrum lilies.

When the young couple left for a motor trip through New England, the bride had changed into a suit of gold wool with a white hat and brown accessories. After Sept. 1 they will live in Ann Arbor where Mr. English will complete his senior year at the University of Michigan Law School and Mrs. English will complete her senior year at the University of Michigan School of Music.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Alva L. Coulter of Shepherd, Mich., Mrs. Charles Brand of Urbana, O., Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brand of Urbana, O., and Elizabeth Brand of Dayton, O.
