

Plans of Mice and Men

You may say and think what you please. Folks, about this business of operating self-governments so that more people will be happy...

BEWARE OF UNWISE GENEROSITY

Personally, I most firmly believe in the virtue and value of practicing the Art of Being a Good Samaritan...

Police Speeders

A report that three drivers were arrested this week for driving at excessive speeds. They are: Harry Van Matre, 1300 St. Clair street, Detroit, who was doing 55 m.p.h. in a 45 mile speed zone...

Green Resolves To Move Despite Union Picketing

There is an old adage, "In union there is strength," but it fails to take into account the fact that the strength of a union is in its unity...

No Parking Meters Yet Received By City

No parking meters have as yet been received by the city for installation, according to a statement received by Chief of Police J. P. Hackett...

City Commission and School Board Had Little To Do At Regular Meetings Monday Even

It was a quiet Monday evening when Mayor Milton Mallerud looked around the table at his fellow commissioners and asked: "Any more business we can do tonight?"

Commissioners Find Board Re-Elects Joslyn President For Seventh Time

All officers of the Birmingham Board of Education were re-elected to their respective offices last Monday night at the annual meeting required by State law for the reorganization of the school board...

Many Stores Take Wednesday PMs Off In July, August

Employees of most Birmingham stores are going to have an added opportunity to enjoy their day's retail business as well as their vacation time...

Recover Stolen Car

A black Buick sedan, belonging to Harry Van Matre of Pontiac, was recovered in front of the Community House on June 13, in a covert Saturday afternoon raid by the Johnstone and Salisbury squad...

Street Dances To Be Weekly Events

"Dancing Under the Stars" will be possible every Wednesday night throughout the summer season, it was announced by Mrs. Wilbur Robinson, chairman of the street dance committees of the Recreation Board...

Boy Unhurt As Car Runs Into Bicycle

Five-year-old John Dixon, 1010 Glenhurst road, was scratched and bruised when a car driven by William Gilbreath, III, ran into a bicycle Tuesday evening, July 2.

Let's Hold the Price Line!

Sunday at midnight the nation's wartime emergency control known as the OPA died, because President Truman vetoed Congress' substitute bill to take the place of the original one...

City Republican Delegates Set For State Convention

Birmingham and Bloomfield held their elected delegates to the Oakland County Convention of the Republican party, held in Pontiac Thursday last week...

Car Tires, Wheels Stolen During Night

Theft of four tires and wheels from his two cars was reported to police this morning by T. A. Schooley, 1020 Rivenook.

Here's a Hot Weather Tip: Make Your Dog's Life Easier

When it comes to withstanding the hot, humid days of summer, your family dog reacts just as you do. He gets hot, just as cool as he can in his own way—and you, as his master, can help him great deals if you understand a few things...

Schools May Have 3000 Students In Fall, Census Shows

The final tabulation of the figures compiled in a census covering the entire Birmingham school district in the age group from birth through 19 years, was announced by Mrs. Irene E. Steev, assistant superintendent for the Board of Education...

A Bang-Up Time Had By All with the Help of City Hall

Fourth of July activities at the Kari D. Kysor home at 211 Parkside were a most successful bang—thanks to the cooperation of the Birmingham Police Department...

Rubbish Collections Once a Month During Summer, DPW States

If you didn't get your weekly accumulation of bottles, cans, etc., out for the City to collect this week, you will have to wait until July 25th before a collection will be made again.

Keep Prices Down

"A careful survey of local associations of various Birmingham retailers is being made and will continue to be made by retail wholesalers here to prevent present levels." Toothaker stated.

Reators Will Try Holding Rentals To A 15% Increase

Unless manufacturers and wholesalers raise prices to retailers, Birmingham merchants will continue to sell their merchandise at present levels despite the removal of OPA ceiling prices and the general fear that prices now will go "sky-high" as a result of the removal.

Lathrup Residents To Discuss School District Changes

A possible change in organization will be under discussion at the annual meeting of School District No. 11, Southfield Township, to be held at the Annie Lathrup School, Monday, July 8, at 8 p.m., according to Mrs. Dean Weaver, 18166 Glendale, present district director to replace the present directorship.

Remove OPA Restrictions

"Removal of OPA restrictions is expected to have but little effect on local retail prices," says Foster Toothaker, president of the Birmingham Retail Merchants Association.

Information Has Come To The Eccentric

"Information has come to the Eccentric that one or possibly two persons have met suppliers here approaching Birmingham groceries handling meals, offering practically unlimited quantities of fresh meat at about double present wholesale prices."