Miss Davis Makes Bow to Society At Garden Party

At a lovely garden party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Davis of Woodridge road, Kathryn Davis made her bow to society Saturday afternoon. The mother and daughter received their guests in the living room before a picture window overlooking the garden. Delphinium and white peonies decorated the room.

The debutante was charming in a floor-length dress of white organza with puffed sleeves and appliqued with white daisies. She carried an arrangement of tiny pale pink sweetheart roses.

Assisting Kathryn were Joan Lawson, Georgia Sulbuck, and Joyce Fraser of Detroit, Carolyn Wells of Birmingham and Heidi Flannery of Bloomfield Hills. Patricia Voss of Evanston, Ill., was unable to attend.

Mrs. Davis was assisted by Mrs. McKee Thompson of Detroit, Mrs. Francis C. Galland of West Wind farms, Mrs. George E. Baldwin of Orchard Lake, Mrs. Charles E. Carey of Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. H. C. Bukiewicz of Virginia.

Steinbaugh-Johnson Rites Read at St. James Church

Joyce Steinbaugh, daughter of Mrs. York R. F. Giddey of Southfield road, and Varrum B. Steinbaugh of Cranbrook road, spoke her vows to Lawrence L. Johnson, son of Mrs. Harold Nelson of West Maple avenue at an evening ceremony at St. James Episcopal church last Saturday. The Rev. Harold Towne read the marriage rites at 8:00.

York R. F. Giddey gave the bride in marriage. She wore a lovely gown of ivory satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the wrists. Her fingertip veil of ivory illusion fell from an ivory satin cap and she carried a cascade of white carnations.

Arnie Steinbaugh was her sister's maid-of-honor. Her gown was of ivory crepe trimmed in gold. She wore a coronet of tulle roses in her hair, tulle gloves, and carried tulle roses.

Mary Hutton of Cincinnati, O., wore a gown of pink embroidered batiste with a cap of pearls and a bouquet of blue delphinium. The other bridesmaid, Velma Keogh, was gowned in blue embroidered batiste and also wore a cap of pearls. Her flowers were yellow carnations.

Judy Towne, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Harold Towne, as flower girl, wore a long dress of pink tulle. Her flowers were yellow carnations.

Adele Mayrand and Harry L. Sevin, Jr. Married Saturday

At a small wedding at the home of W. H. Sevin of Detroit, on Saturday afternoon at 6:00, Adele Mayrand, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert Paul Mayrand of Farmdale, and Harry Lewis Sevin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Sevin of Madison avenue, were united in marriage. Reverend Sloan of Farmdale officiated at the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by David C. Brown of Farmdale. She wore a gown of white marquisette with an embroidered organza bodice, a high neckline and cap sleeves. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a marquisette headpiece adorned with orange blossoms. She carried white roses and anaprapagos.

Pauline Rannant of Detroit was Adele's only attendant. She was gowned in blue marquisette and carried blue and yellow flowers. William D. Sevin was his brother's best man.

A reception was held at the Sevin home following the ceremony. Mrs. Elizabeth Cottrell, grandmother of the bride, chose a dress of grey sheer crepe for the wedding, with which she wore white accessories and a corsage of white gageinas. Mrs. Sevin wore a powder-blue lace dress with white accessories and a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses and blue dahlias.

When the young couple left on their northern Michigan honeymoon, Mrs. Sevin was wearing an aqua dress with white accessories and a corsage of white roses. On their return they will make their home in Farmdale.

Morning Ceremony At Home Of Bride

Josephine Shoemaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Curtis Shoemaker of Pligra road, became the bride of Lt. Wilmarth Otto Mootz, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Mootz of Spokane, Wash., Wednesday morning at 11:00. The ceremony took place in the home of the bride with the Rev. W. Glen Harris reading the service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a drop-shoulder gown of white marquisette with a tulle bodice and a sheer yoke of marquisette to a high neckline. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a band adorned with clusters of stephanotis. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Her sister, Mrs. John W. Sheedy of Los Angeles, was matron-of-honor and Barbara Peterson of Wilmette, Ill., was the only other attendant. They wore gowns of white and blue net respectively and carried nosegays of blue delphinium and pink carnations.

Allen W. Greer of Indianapolis was best man and John W. Sheedy served as usher.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held at the Kingsley Inn. Mrs. Shoemaker wore a street-length dress of summer print, black accessories and a corsage of white gageinas.

When the young couple left on their northern Michigan honeymoon Mrs. Mootz was wearing a sheer pink wool suit, blue feather hat and a corsage of blue delphinium and white roses. They will make their home in Seattle where both are attending the University of Washington.
