Norma Elert Weds Finlay MacKellop Saturday Morning

Norma Barbara Elert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elert of the townsite, became the bride of Finlay MacKellop, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan MacKellop of Royal Oak, at a 10 o'clock nuptial mass at St. Dun's Scottish Monastery, Saturday. The ceremony was performed by the Reverend Father Bartholomew, pastor of the church. Tall standards of white gladioli and baby's breath stood at each side of the candlelit altar. Guests were seated by Robert Schulte, the bride's step-brother. Keesa Furnman was best man.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in her flowing gown of white crepe with lace overdress. It was styled with long tight sleeves, fitted bodice with sweetheart neckline, bustle effect of lace and a short train. Her coronet of seed pearls held in place the silk net veil of illusion. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and white delphinium tied with satin streamers.

Her attendants were Alice MacKellop, sister of the bridegroom, as maid-of-honor, and June Elert, the bride's sister, as bridesmaid. Alice was attired in a bouffant gown of yellow cyclot with a matching halo hat, and she carried yellow Tallman roses interspersed with blue delphinium. June wore an embroidered maxiquetta gown with a halo hat to match, and she carried American Beauty roses and carnations.

The bride's mother was dressed in pearl-gray crepe with matching hat and her corsage was of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore sheer black and her shoulder bouquet was of red roses and white gardenias. The bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elert, Sr., were among the guests and she wore a black and white sheer ensemble.

Following the ceremony, the wedding party and relatives had breakfast at The Normandy. A reception for 100 guests took place at the home of the bride that evening. The bride's table was spread with an heirloom satin damask cloth more than 50 years old, centered with a five-tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom. Tall candlesticks were at either end. Following a wedding trip to Buffalo and New York City, the couple will reside temporarily at the home of the bridegroom in Royal Oak.

The Seton Guild's annual picnic will be at the club on the Sarah Fisher Home premises at 12 o'clock July 11. Years back the townsite picnic and become acquainted with the work the guild is doing. It is open to the public and anyone wishing for more information please contact the writer at So-3653.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Nichol of Lathrup boulevard spent last week end at their summer home in Ludington. Patty, their daughter, had as guests Marcie Helwig of Birmingham, and Ann Dennison of Pittsburgh. Their son, Alfred H. Nichol, Jr., is now well recuperated at Fort Lewis, Wash., with the infantry and was recently transferred from Arkansas. He entered service March 15.

Robert Seably, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Seably of the townsite left Saturday for Camp Westminster, Higgins Lake. Sally went to Holiday House with the Girl Scouts and on July 29 will leave for a month's vacation at Westminster.

Ines Diederich, wife of Richard Diederich, of San Rose drive, underwent an operation on Saturday at Royal Oak hospital.

On Thursday, June 27, Mrs. Gilbert Adair opened her home to the juniors of Lathrup townsite for a box social which was followed by a scavenger hunt and then dancing and refreshments in the Adair's recreation room. Those attending included: Sunny Black, Jim Layman, Barbara Cline, Jim Simpson, Barbara Firth, Sandy Mackey, Dot Hayes, Helen Schimpe, Jean Porter, Mary Marie Torrance, Don Adair, Sue Jarvis, Wally Ahlers, Joan Weaver and Dick Smith. The group thanks Mrs. Adair for a "swell time."

The week of June 29 to July 6 the Girl Scout troop of Lathrup are vacationing at Holiday House, Pine Lake, the scouts having earned through the year the proceeds with which to cover the expenses of the outing.

The girls and their mother's extend a vote of thanks to Mrs. Hayes, their leader, who was assisted by Mrs. Brown.

The scouts include: Violet Turner, Sally Seably, Jane Clark, Sue Jarvis, Barbara Firth, Joan Weaver, Sally Purdy, Jean Porter, Charlotte Schrimmer, Barbara Cline, Carol Brown, Marilyn Rowston, Sunny Black, Dot Hayes, Lou Brannan, Marjorie Greene, Joyce Watson, Florence Beyma, Mary Knorrp, Mildred Smith, Mary Torrance, and Barbara Dryden.
