North-Howe Vows Spoken In Noon Ceremony on Saturday

Before an altar decorated with white flowers and a white lace straw hat trimmed with white tulle, the bride and groom, Mrs. H. Lee North of Purdy street, became the bride of Don L. Howe, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Howe of Potoskey, Mich., at 12 noon on Saturday, June 8. The double ring ceremony took place in the First Presbyterian church with the Rev. W. Glen Harris officiating.

Mrs. North gave her daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of white satin, brocade, fashioned with a shepherd's neckline and long sleeves extending to a point over the wrists. Her full skirt swept into a long train and her fingertip veil of white illusion bordered with lace fell from a satin braided crown adorned with orange blossoms. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses, lilies of the valley, and snapdragons.

Mrs. Robert Whaley attended her sister as matron-of-honor. Her full-skirted dress was of white tulle with a square neckline and cap sleeves trimmed with white eyelet embroidery. She wore a white bonnet and carried a nosegay of blue carnations and forget-me-nots.

The bridesmaids, Janet Schneider of Mt. Pleasant, Alyce Friend of Potoskey, and Mrs. Willy Pakster of Royal Oak, wore white gowns with yellow, orchid, and green accents. The flower girls, Frances Jean North of Detroit and the bride's children, were in white, and carried a basket of mock-orange petals. Jayne's nephews, James Lee Whaley, was the ring bearer.

Mrs. Gerald Tiltman of Dearborn acted as best man and the ushers were Jack Gordon of Detroit, Robert E. North of Birmingham, and Pvt. Clark Dean of Birmingham.

Mrs. North, mother of the bride, wore a suit dress of pink lace with
