Birmingham Takes 2 More Games for 6th Straight Win

Birmingham continued in high gear in the Royal Oak Twilight Softball League by racking up two more victories, to stay undefeated in six starts.

Last Friday Ray McBride pitched a thrilling 5-4 contest against the third place Parkers. In the final inning with bases filled and one man out, Ray settled down to retiring the side with only one run crossing the plate.

Monday Birmingham scored four runs in the first inning behind four-hit hurling by Don Parsons, to win over Wayne Oakland Bank, 9-3. Top hitters for the winners were Cliff McBride, knocking out two doubles, Jack Pearce with a pair of singles, and Bob Andrews hitting a long triple.

Next week's schedule clashes the league leaders against Berkley Creamery, Tuesday, at 13 mile and Rochester, coast, and Thursday with the Bluecaps at the Royal Oak High School diamond. Game time is 6:30.
