St. James Church Is Scene Of Lovely Evening Ceremony

The soft glow of candlelight illuminated St. James Episcopal church at eight o'clock in the evening of Saturday, June 8, when the Rev. Harold E. Towne read the double ring ceremony of the united Rosalind Randall and Ensign William Francis Tighe, Jr., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clifton Randall of Shirley drive and Ensign Tighe is the son of the William F. Tighe of Hanna street. Vases of white roses, gladioli and a bouquet of white daisies were placed at the end of each of the three choir stalls on either side of the sanctuary. Daisey chains were festooned between the pulpits on each side and palms flourished from the front of the scene. Marking the family pew were arrangements of peonies and Given in marriage by her father, Rosalind was lovely in a gown of heavy ivory satin, fashioned with a full, hoop skirt ending in a circular train. The sleeves were long and extended to the wrists and the low, round neckline was distinguished by scallops edged with a design in metallic thread.

Her double-tiered fingertip veil of ivory silk fell to the waist, matching Mary Queen-of-Scots cap, fashioned of heirloom Chantilly lace from her mother's wedding gown.

She carried a spray bouquet of white lily-of-the-valley and sweet-peas and wore a strand of pearls and tiny pearl earrings, gifts of the groom.

Mrs. William M. Hutchins of Saugatuck, was matron-of-honor. Her gown was of aqua colored jersey with a high round neckline, cap sleeves and a wide self belt. The full skirt was made with unpressed pleats. Her flowers were yellow daisies and she wore a light of the same kind of flowers in her hair.

The bridesmaid, Nancy Borgan of Grapes Pointe, Jayne Bronson of Detroit, Dorothy Daugherty of Newark, Del., Shirley McPike and the bridesgroom's sisters, Mrs. E. F. Shireley and Mrs. E. F. Shireley, were in white to that of the matron-of-honor. They carried bouquets of white shasta daisies and they, too, wore bands of matching flowers in their hair.

Sheldon Olson was best man and the guests were seated by the ushers, Paul Dunn, Thomas Williams, and Harold E. Towne.

Mary Martha Hobrock Jaeger, daughter of Mrs. Martin H. Hobrock of Fort Wayne, Ind., and the late Mr. Hobrock, and Colin John Hagerman John, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. P. John of Tooleing lane, have been feted at several parties recently in honor of their marriage which will take place Saturday evening at Christ Church Cranbrook.
