Jaeger-John Vows Spoken In Lovely All-Blue Wedding

Tall candelabra standing near an altar banked with ferns and palms and vases of blue delphiniums decorated Christ Church Cranbrook last Saturday evening when Mary Martha Hobrock Jaeger became the bride of Colin Hagerman John.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Martin H. Hobrock and the late Mr. Hobrock of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Colmar A. F. John of Tootliana, Ind.

The Rev. Charles H. Cadigan and the Rev. Harold E. Towne, of St. James Church, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Dr. Raymond Hobrock of Birmingham, wore a gown of ice-blue tulle and tulle with a low drop shoulder neckline finished in wide scallops, long tight sleeves and a full skirt draped in front with folds of marquisette. Her waist-length veil of blue illusion fell from an open crown of braided tulle and she carried a white prayer book with cascades of blue delphinium.

Mrs. C. Fred Chandler, as matron-of-honor, wore a gown of blue chiffon with ruffles accenting the elbow length sleeves and cascades of ruffles down the back of the long full skirt. She wore blue delphiniums in her hair and carried an arm bouquet of the same flowers.

Mr. John was his son's best man and ushers were Jack Fabian of Gross Pointe, William F. Lewis, Jr. of Huntington Woods, C. Fred Chatham, Edward H. Lerchen, Richard J. Morgan, Robert Craig, and Jeremy John, brother of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hobrock chose a gown of grey crepe with a blue hat and orchids. The bridegroom's mother also wore a grey gown with chartreuse trim and she wore cypridium orchids in her hair.

A reception following the ceremony was held at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club.

When Mr. and Mrs. John left on their wedding trip to New York, Mrs. John was wearing a tanset gabardine suit with chartreuse hat and gloves and a white orchid corsage. They will live in Birmingham on their return.

Miss Barbara Elise White, daughter of former Bloomfield Hills residents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. White, was married in New York City Wednesday, June 6 to Lt. Clifford H. Parks, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clifford H. Parks, Sr. of South Bend, Ind.

The double ring ceremony, performed the day following the groom's graduation from West Point Military Academy, was held in St. Thomas Church, New York City with the Rev. Rosell H. Brooks officiating.

Attendees were the bride's two sisters, Mrs. John C.
