

Phyllis M. Allen Becomes Bride Of Walter Andersen

The First Methodist church was the scene Tuesday evening of the wedding of Phyllis Martha Allen and Walter Lorenz Andersen. Phyllis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett W. Allen, of Bridgeville road, and Walter is the son of Anders Andersen and the late Mrs. Anderson of Perth Amboy, N. J. The couple spoke their vows before the Rev. Arnold Runkel at 8:00.

Mr. Allen gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of white net over tulle with a tulle collar and a tulle train. Her veil was of light blue net with a high net yoke. A half hat of blue net framed her face and her colonial bouquet was of yellow carnations, yellow snapdragons and blue iris. Adah Allen, another sister, as maid-of-honor, wore a gown of pink, styled like that of the matron-of-honor, with the same type of hat in pink, and she carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations, pink snapdragons and blue iris.

John Earl Wilson, Jr., acted as best man and ushers were Garth Pearlman and Jack Bush of Ferndale, and Frederick Vieta of Birmingham. Mrs. Allen chose a street.

Jean Guest and Donald A. Cabral Married Saturday

The marriage of Jean Marjorie Guest, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Guest, of Larches drive, to Donald Arthur Cabral, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cabral of Washcrest Way, was an event of last Saturday afternoon. The Rev. W. Glen Harris read the service at 4:00 in the First Presbyterian Church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Victorian gown of ivory duchesse satin with a full mousseline de sole skirt posed over tulle and falling into a long train. The sweetheart neckline was filled in with a transparent yoke of mousseline de sole, and bordered with silk appliqued leaves. Long tight sleeves extended to points over the wrists. She wore long hair in a coronet of white illusion which fell to the end of her train from a coronet of white illusion edged in rosepoints and duchesse lace. She carried a white prayer book with white orchids.

Attendants Wore White. The matron-of-honor, Mrs. Frederic Conklin, of Detroit, was honored. Next in line was the bride, and bridesmaid, Mary Ann Cabral, Nora Davidson, Jean Kraus, and Norma Buehler of Badin, N. C. were gowned in white net over white tulle with long puffed sleeves, and plume at the back of the skirt edged with white grosgrain ribbons. They wore long white mitts and white horsehair halo hats with grosgrain ribbon streamers. The matron and maid-of-honor carried cascades of peach painted daisies and the bridesmaid carried cascades of yellow painted daisies.

Susan Van Hook, as flower girl, was dressed in white chiffon over white tulle with a white ribbon sash. She carried a cascade of peach and yellow painted daisies.

David Warrlow of Ann Arbor was best man and ushers were Lawrence Pohlmam, Robert Mers of Bloomfield Highlands, and Warren G. Hilsner and William M. Sax of Detroit.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Guest received her guests wearing a floor-length gown of powder-blue crepe with a powder-blue feather hat and a corsage of white orchids. Mrs. Cabral wore a gown of aqua print with a black picture hat and a corsage of white orchids.

Flower Ideas For Summer Brides

Adorn—but do not conceal—the wedding gown, is the rule for 1946 bride's bouquets, according to floral experts. This principle is illustrated with the crescent-shaped example at right—blending pink camellias, dwarf elf roses and traditional lily of the valley. Well balanced and easy to carry, note absence of ribbon streamers—just small loops at center, enough to cover the bride's hands. At left: unusually colorful is this modern bridesmaid's bouquet of gloriosa lilies, coral Gerba daisies and copper tulips.

Newlyweds Making Home In Birmingham

Mr. and Mrs. Thursty Pierce of 529 Bates street, are two of Birmingham's newest residents. They moved here a little over a week ago following their marriage in New York on June 8. Mrs. Pierce is the former Jacqueline Semo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Semo of New York City and BULLETIN!—The album we've all been waiting for has arrived. Frank Sinatra's golden voice on four Columbia discs. The supply can't last so call us and let us reserve one for you.

"SOMETHING OLD SOMETHING NEW" coupled with "FROM THIS DAY FORWARD"—you're right, it's by Frankie "the voice" Sinatra.
"FULL MOON AND EMPTY ARMS" with "YOU ARE TOO BEAUTIFUL"—with the vocal refrain by "the voice."
"THE GIRL THAT I MARRY" is the piece that every record collection needs for that finished touch. "THEY SAY IT'S WONDERFUL" on the reverse makes it a double bargain.
"BOOGIE BLUES," the latest and best platter that Gene Krupa has put out in some time—you better get this disc now because it's going fast. "LOVER" is on the other side.
Woody Herman's "NORTHWEST PASSAGE" is coupled with "JUNE COMES AROUND EVERY YEAR."
Ethel Smith's famous "TICO-TICO" is in our store again but the supply is limited so be sure to get yours today. "LERO LERO: BEM TE VI ATREVIDO" is the double attraction.
