

Most of Michigan's Veterans Employed, Veterans Administration Report Shows

By Esther Van Wagoner Tufty
Michigan veterans apparently are not having too tough a time getting jobs.

added the Muskegon Republican, "the Philippine Republic is unable, after occupation by Japan, to arm these troops. Every soldier in the Philippines equipped to fight potential enemies in the Pacific will mean one less soldier that we will have to equip in the United States."

Dundero declared the great sacrifices of the Philippine nation would be lost unless they have some defense to take care of themselves when the United States withdraws its army on Independence Day.

As St. Bloom, of New York, chairman of the House Foreign Affairs committee, said, without the estimated 10 to 11 million dollars' worth of material (most of which is already in the islands) uniforms, and other supplies, the Philippines would be left "without any protection at all" from 300,000 to 400,000 well-armed guerrillas when the American army leaves on July 4.

Hobby Collections Shown To Rotarians

"Hobbies" was the topic of a talk given Birmingham Rotarians Monday noon by Mrs. Homer S. Leonard, Bloomfield Hills. She pointed out the value of one or more hobbies as a means of adding zest to living, and presented an array of numerous fans, of which she has a rare collection. Mrs. Leonard also collects dolls and buttons, and had a wing built on her home to provide for displaying the doll collection. She was introduced by Rotarian Allen Arnold, program chairman.

Rebutl Traffic Signal Still 'NG'

City Commissioners discussed the traffic light at Oxford and Woodward Monday night. References were made by various commissioners that the light seemed to be out about as much as it was on.

"This 'off-and-on' business, in my opinion, tends to create a disrespect for traffic signals," said Mayor H. H. Mallory. "People get the habit of making up their own minds if the signal does not do it for them, and it could result in considerable danger to motorists."

The City Manager pointed out that the city had been experiencing considerable difficulty with this light and that it had been completely rebuilt.
