Doom for Dandelions

SCOTT'S 4-X

It's a cinch to spray 'em away now. Just empty convenient packets of Scott's 4-X powder into sprayer or sprinkling can. Add water and apply to lawn. Dandelions and other ugly weeds soon disappear but grass is not harmed.

Permanent and easy. Now is the time. The cost is trivial.

White Sox Manager

Ted Lyons, Chicago White Sox pitching ace for 21 years, looks pleased over his promotion to manager, replacing Jimmy Dykes. The baseball world is watching with interest, since pitchers have heretofore flopped as managers.

Minister to Washington

His First and 5000th Baby

Dr. W. H. Vosburgh of Cooperstown, Wis., who has delivered 5000 babies, celebrates his 50th anniversary as a country doctor by celebrating with Mrs. Elizabeth Gochow, 30, of Manitowoc, the first he brought into the world. She holds his latest, 7-month-old Clard Wanek. The doctor, who has never lost a mother, expects to retire.

Waiting Line Gets Fed Up

Tom's Quality Market in Detroit sympathizes in a practical fashion with the poor consumer as food shortages make waiting lines grow longer—folding chairs and coffee and doughnuts on the house!

Big Guns of the Red Sox

Birmingham Co-op To Meet Tonight

The Birmingham Cooperative will hold a meeting of the membership this evening, June 27th, at 8:00 P. M., at the Community House. The business of the evening includes election of the board of directors and incorporation of the group.

Events have moved forward rapidly since the last meeting on June 19th at which time the By-Laws were adopted, the group reports.

An intensive membership campaign has been in progress. Among new members are Mr. Harold Phillips, 998 Hazel street, who belonged to the Co-op in England; Mr. Andrew Watson, 1207 Bird street, the Scotland Cooperative; Mr. David Geer, 1799 Holland avenue, the Cooperatives in Massachusetts; Mr. Bill Atkinson, 1600 W. Long Lake road, at Cornell University; and Prof. R. C. Fletcher, 123 Hawthorne, of Wayne University, who observed the cooperatives in Nova Scotia, and was much impressed with their work.

A Shame, Ain't It?

"Mother: 'John, it's positively shameful the way Junior talks. I just heard him say, 'I ain't went nowhere.'"
Father: "I should say it is a shame! Why, he has traveled twice as much as most boys his age!"

"That's clear enough," he said. "And where does that bring me?"
The farmer smiled.
"That's clear enough," he said. "That brings you right back to where we're standing now, Right here."
The salesman's eyes popped.
"Right here!" he echoed. "But I don't understand. Why should I come back here?"
