2 From Birmingham Chosen For Roles In "Gold In The Hills"

Forrest Fox, of South Bales street, is cast in the role of Honest Jack Dalton in the Detroit Civic Players production of "Gold in the Hills." The old fashioned melodrama is being repeated by popular demand, at the Art Institute, Saturday evening, June 8. Forrest will be remembered for his characterization of Honest Jack last year, which contributed to the play's success. "Scoppy," in "Janie," "Corporal Hodgson" in "Rain," and "Hip Vat Bret" in "Double Door" are a few of the roles which have made Forrest a favorite with Detroit Civic Players audiences.

Gertrude Peterson, of Pierce street, is cast as Mrs. Vanderlip, the same role which Gertrude played last year. "The Trouble with Women" owed much of its comedy to Gertrude's performance as "Aunt Effie." Also remembered by Civic Players audiences are her characterizations in "Ring Around Elizabeth" and "Janie."
