

Interest Grows For YMCA Camp Cavell

Latest to add their names to the ever-growing list of teen-agers who plan to spend part of their summer having a wonderful time at Camp Cavell on Lake Harcon are a number from Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills. These include Betty Miller Greene of the Sherwood School, Katherine Hyland of Telegraph road, Betty Pittman of Pilgrim road and Mary Alice Robertson of Pilgrim road. This Detroit YMCA camp is to be open for eight weeks this season and there are still places open for girls from 12 to 18 who wish to register. Miss Marjorie Magee is the camp director and the camp office is located at the Central YMCA, 2230 Woodruff Street. Activities include swimming, riding, overnight hikes, camp-cook-outs, tennis, archery, handicrafts, dramatics, campcraft, bike-riding, fencing and creative writing.

Harry H. Phillips Weds Detroit Girl

St. Michael's church in Detroit was the scene Saturday afternoon of the wedding of Mary Jane Klebba, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Klebba, to Harry H. Phillips, son of Mrs. Harvey Bittinger of Detroit. The Rev. Bartholomew Bart, O.F.M., read the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin fashioned with a slipper satin bodice and long sleeves and cap sleeves and buttons to the waist. Her negligee veil was fastened to a tiara of old pearls and she carried a white orchid on a gray book.

Mrs. H. B. Stillman of Birmingham, was matron-of-honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. A. O. Baker of Steubenville, Ohio, and Jayne Flaherty of Birmingham. They wore dresses of emerald satin with round necks and cap sleeves and bonnet caps of satin with daisies framing the face. They carried sprays of white daisies tied with white ribbons.

H. B. Stillman acted as best man and ushers included James Klebba, Jack Ullman, Robert Sweeney, and Paul Klebba.

As together with secondary dress, Mrs. Klebba wore a beige crepe dress with brown accessories and a brown tulle trimmed with roses. Mrs. Bittinger wore a blue dress with matching hat and white orchid.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Klebba. When the young couple left for their honeymoon in northern Michigan Mrs. Phillips was wearing a yellow dress suit with brown accessories and her bridal orchid.
