

Girl Scout Group Picks Leaders And Plans Busy Season

Mrs. Guy Durgan of Farmington has been chosen president for the coming year of the Oakland County Girl Scout Committee. Other officers named at the recent annual meeting held at the Birmingham Community House are: Mrs. Wendell Brown, Farmington, first vice-president; Mrs. John Folkerts, Rochester, second vice-president; Mrs. Harold Ackerman, Lake Orion, secretary; and George Combs, Southfield, treasurer.

New committee chairmen are: Mrs. George Finch, Bloomfield, committee on camp sites; and Mrs. Lewis Thornton, Troy township, replacing Mrs. Frank Highy as publicity chairman.

In addition to the annual election of officers, main business of the meeting was discussion of the possibilities for a suitable camp site for the 3,000 Girl Scouts in Oakland county for whom no camp is available. Mrs. Finch is investigating camp possibilities, and any information along this line may be given her, or to Mrs. Edward Buslander, county executive director, who may be reached on Monday at the Birmingham Community House, Telephone 248.

The next meeting of the committee will be held at the Community House on March 19 at 8:30 p. m. Interested adults are invited to attend.

Birmingham Girls On Duke University "B" Average List

DURHAM, N. C.—Among the students at Duke University on the "B" average list at the close of the first semester were two from Birmingham: Miss Barbara H. Ruth Harrell and Charlotte Mathilda Mills.

Mrs. Harrell has recently been selected for membership in Ivy, sophomore scholastic honorary organization. She is also member of the editorial staff of the archive, campus literary magazine; and Kappa Alpha Theta national social sorority. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Harrell, 1469 Broadway street, Birmingham.

Miss Mills also is on the staff of the Archive, campus literary magazine; and is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Mill, 935 Gordon court, Birmingham.

Kalamazoo—Dick Dunn of Birmingham is a member of Western Michigan College students who are in charge of arrangements for a "Welcome Vets" party to be given Sunday evening by the Newman club, an organization of Catholic students. All Catholic veterans who have returned to college will be guests.

FOUR ARE AT WESTERN
Four students from Birmingham have enrolled at Western Michigan College, Kalamazoo, for the second semester, according to an analysis of the enrollment just completed. Two are veterans, including Hubert W. Buncher, and George C. Dunn. Others enrolled are Richard J. Dunn and Barbara Fletcher.

Ann Sears, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton E. Sears of Chestnutfield road, has recently been elected president of Aycock House, Duke University, Durham, N. C., and will hold this office during her senior year. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

Patsy Higbee was recently made a member of the Independents club at Stephens College, an organization participating in social service work, a program of social activities, and a hands Across the Campus movement among the students. Miss Higbee, a junior student, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis T. Higbee, 388 Baldwin street.

Nancy Ball, freshman at Denison University, Granville, Ohio, has been initiated into Delta Delta Delta national sorority. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Ball, 1530 Fairway drive.

Eccles Says Living Costs May Go Up

Federal Reserve Board Chairman Mariner S. Eccles, left, confers with Frank B. Rowland, chairman of the House Banking and Currency Committee, after stating that living costs may rise another 10 per cent under the President's new wage-price policy. Eccles argues that wage increases at present are justifiable only if they do not necessitate price increases.

Latrup Townsite News

The Townsite Protective Association had as guest speakers Wednesday evening at the school, George Stark and Ann Cambled, both of the Detroit News. They were the first of a series of speakers who will visit the townsite this spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Myers of Detroit returned Monday from a five weeks' vacation spent in New Orleans visiting friends enroute to Florida. They were accompanied by Mrs. Myers and Mr. Myers and Fort Lauderdale during their stay and saw the Leo Golegors, Mrs. F. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Drew Hamline, all of the Townsite, while at Fort Lauderdale. Mrs. Myers was appointed chairman of the picture drive before she left. Proceeds from the sale of tickets will be used for the veterans of the Percy Jones hospital. The picture was painted by Mrs. Edythe Marshall as a gift. Women's Club ways and means committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. H. E. Hamill.

Among the delegates of Three Flags Chapter, D. A. R., to attend the conference at Grand Rapids March 27, 28, 29 will be Mrs. Robert Vint, Mrs. Conrad Bloom, Mrs. Frank Goldburg and the regent, Mrs. Geddies, of Detroit. Mrs. Vint has been appointed as delegate to State Council meeting of delegates scheduled for the 29th and 30th of this month at Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Leroy Bartholomew, a recent bride, will be the guest of honor at a luncheon Thursday to meet townsite friends of the Charles Bartholomew. June and Leroy's fashionable wedding was reported in part, two weeks ago in this column. June hails from the deep South and, with her pretty accent, will be most welcome in this community.

Three Flags Chapter, D. A. R., will have a co-operative luncheon bridge Tuesday, March 19, at the home of Mrs. Conrad T. Bloom of Athlone place.

Mrs. Lillian Scheer of Highland Park is a house guest of the Robert Vint this week, as is their granddaughter, Patsy.
