Jacqueline Bell Married Recently In Grand Rapids

The altar of Grace Episcopal church in Grand Rapids was banked with white anemones, palms and ferns as the Rev. Donald V. Curry read the ceremony at 9 o'clock in the afternoon of Saturday, March 2, when Jacqueline F. Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart J. Bell of Grand Rapids and formerly of Birmingham, spoke her marriage vows to Thomas P. Larrabee, son of Mrs. E. L. Crume of Grand Rapids.

The wedding music, which included "Liebertraum," "Clare de Lune," "The Lord's Prayer," and "Ave Maria" was furnished by Verne R. Stillwell, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a white satin gown with a sweetheart neckline, long tapering sleeves and a circular train falling from a bustle effect in the back.

Her finger ring veil of tulle was held in place by a white satin crown and she carried a white prayer book encased with white covers intertwined with tiny orchids and centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Johnathan Birnie and Elizabeth Williamson of Grand Rapids, N. J., acted as matron-of-honor and maid-of-honor respectively. The bridesmaids wore white and white lace and net. Their head-dresses were of fuchsia feathers and they carried bouquets of fuchsia orchids.

The bridesmaids, Ethel Stratiff of Indiana, Pa., Mrs. Robert E. VanFossen of Warren, Ohio, Mrs. G. Kay Pratt, and Alice Crume, also wore white lace and net dresses. Their head-dresses consisted of ice blue feathers and their cascade bouquets were of ice blue carnations.

Acting as best man was William Kenyon and the ushers included Mr. Mortimer Roberts, Mr. Kay Pratt, William Wheeler of Worcester, Mass., Lester DeLidderer of Fort Dodge, and Lewis Kenyon.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held at the Peninsula club in Grand Rapids. Mrs. Bell greeted her guests in a sash crepe gown, trimmed with fuchsia and gold beads. She wore a fuchsia flower hat and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Crume chose a royal blue sash dress with blue and white accessories for her own wedding. Her corsage was a white orchid.

When Mr. and Mrs. Larrabee left for a short wedding trip, the bride wore a three-piece gray flannel suit with blue accessories and a white orchid corsage. They will reside in Grand Rapids when they return.

Among the guests who went from Birmingham to the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Dinsley, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nalle, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bell, and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce R. Dodds.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller of Bailey street and the parents of a daughter, Judy Lee, born Feb. 7 at Harper hospital. Mrs. Miller is the former Betty Waggoner.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude R. Streib of Groose Point Woods announce the birth of twins, Janet Elizabeth and Fred Douglas, on March 2 at Harper hospital in Detroit. Mrs. Streib is the former Elizabeth Radensky of Grand Rapids and Mrs. Streib was a former resident of Birmingham.

Seven Are Initiated By Pythian Sisters

The Birmingham Pythian Sister, Temple No. 94, held its meeting and initiation on Tuesday, March 5. The grand chief, Anna Vonkay, and representatives from Cadillac, City of Straits, Lafayette (Detroit), Huron Temple (Ypsilanti), Liberty Temple (Crawson), and Fannie B. Tompkins Temple (Riverton) were visitors.

Eighty-three diners were served to members, guests, and the initiatory candidates, after which seven candidates were initiated into the lodge during the meeting. Events of the evening were brought to a close with the introduction of the visiting sisters.

T.H.E.O. Club Has Installation Dinner

The semi-annual installation dinner for the new officers of T.H.E.O. Club was held Thursday, March 7, at Devon Gables.

The dinner was a new idea, with the five new major officers as guests of honor. Each old officer told her official duties and then presented the girl taking her place. The new officers are Harriet Thompson, president; Marylou Johns, vice-president; Ruth Kadell, recording secretary; and Carol Brown, corresponding secretary.

Legless Singer Joins 'Handicap' Band

Cpl. Johnny Caton of Hamilton Field, Calif., took over some music with new vocalist recruit for his handicapped veterans band. The dimpled Miss is 16-year-old Jo Ann Jackson of San Francisco. She lost both legs in an accident a year ago. Caton, a veteran of his right hand in a shotgun blast, took up one-handed drumming, started the band, and now has some "name" band vets on his roster.
