Maples Beat Clawson In First Round Of District Tournament Play Friday Night; Murray On Scoring Spree With 17 Points

By BILL BONES

Birmingham knocked Clawson out of the district tournament night with a 37 to 30 defeat Friday night in Fernalde's gym, gaining a place in the finale for Saturday night.

The Maples, playing on a strange floor and against a strange team...

BALDWIN HIGHLIGHTS

Hi, Chillian:

Last one voice at the District Tournaments at Fernalde Friday night. It found please return to Annie (same for about 500 other Baldwin kids).

A tremendous crowd turned out Friday night to cheer the Birmingham varsity to victory over Clawson. Lois Tracy set out into the rain with the advice of back-seat drivers Viva Slegger, Ellen Van Wagener, Nancy Nalle, Ginny Marson, Jo Anne, Wellman and Lia Ellis; the carload halted in front of Lincoln High. Leaping over the hurdles they hurried to the gym and scrambled into seats in time to catch a glimpse of that well-known Rochester team.

Other Birmingham rosters we saw were Lois Steele, Lois Patterson, Marianne Neher, Anne Sauer, Tony Baldwin, John Burton, Ronald Kordenbrock, Burton Benson, Walter Allison and Francis Hayes.

Saturday night the Birmingham basketballers again showed abundant crushing power Rochester. After the shouting was over a caravan of kids ended up at the Banquet Room. Dotty Davis, Marge Smith, Nancy Holmer, Nan Chapel, Marge Metzger, Betty Hooper and Ann Drake were on hand to congratulate the team. Also celebrating with colors and cakes were Barbara Burnham, Bert Robb, Betty Tjardra, Bob King, Margaret Erwin and Johnny Dalton.

The house lights dimmed and the curtain went up Friday and Saturday nights on the Kingswood and Cranbrook Operetta, "The Pirates of Penzance." Between acts Annie saw Betty Marsh, Joan Joslyn, John Sheldon, George Allen, Mary Ann Reisinger, Dave Van Duzen, Janet Roosevelt and Jerry Gillette, poring over their programs. Roger Booth and Jack Phister were perched in a corner of the balcony. After the last curtain call Sue Hastreiter and Giner Reinhart were lured backstage to extend their congratulations.

Fearing that winter would return, Anne Eby, Barb Costello, Mary Ann Kraft and Penny Benfield hauled out their dusty bicycles Sunday afternoon, pumped up the tires, and set off on trips into the rolling hills of Cranbrook. Sore muscles and charlie horses the next day were constant reminders of their jaunt.

See ya in the funnies, Annie.

War Savings Stamps; Bonds Again Sold

After a lapse of over three months, the sale of War Savings Stamps and Bonds was resumed at Baldwin through the school's Defense Council.

Roger Wills, stamp chairman, reports that last week's sales totaled $15.85.

Although the war is over the government is still pushing the sale of bonds and stamps as an adequate savings plan.
