Mrs. Hugh McLeese Is New President Of Baldwin P.T.A.

The Baldwin Parent-Teacher Association combined in its final meeting on March 12 an election of officers, a student program, and a festive St. Patrick's Day Tea.

At the annual meeting Mrs. Hugh McLeese was elected president; Mrs. Isaac Robertson, mother vice-president; Ralph Dunbar, father vice-president; Cliff Eaton, teacher vice-president; Frank Harl, secretary; Mrs. Walter Powers, treasurer; and Mrs. Herbert Saffell, historian.

The delegates chosen for the P.T.A. council were Mrs. Walter Kaddell and Mrs. Louis Grungraber. Receives Gold Pin

After the new officers were introduced and welcomed, the retiring president, Mrs. Gregory, was presented by her board with a gold shoulder pin, in appreciation of her two years of faithful service.

The student program consisted of several selections. Josephine Connor, Pat Mullin, and Austin Jones did piano solos. Joan Gove sang, as did Janet Bainbridge and Mr. McLeese.

Harris Jackson played "Stars in a Velvet Sky" on his coronet and the fate quartet, consisting of Nancy Pierce, Lois Bloyer, Dick Robertson and Marion Adams also entertained.

Following the program, tea was served. The tea table was decked in green and white, with green candles and green carnations. The outgoing and the incoming presidents, Mrs. Gregory and Mrs. McLeese, poured.
