

Play Cast Dinner To Be On March 26

By MARY FOSTER

The twenty-one members of the play cast of "Junior Miss" are in for a treat next Tuesday when the first hour funds class is giving the annual cast dinner.

The affair will be under the direction of Mrs. Lola Under, who is taking over in the absence of her daughter, Mrs. John L. Bouck, honeymooning in Florida.

Between rehearsals, the actors and actresses will go to the home economics dining room in Hill School, where chairman Jan Gill with Josephine Boyne, Elizabeth Ellis, Greta Erickson, Charlotte Hall, Lila Joyal, Lois Muller, Har- dy Patterson, Barbara Philip, Nancy Shippey, Shirley Squires, Violet Thomas, Maxine Thompson, Bar- bara Westerby and B. J. Young will be waiting to serve.

Johnson Memorial Contest Tie For Gasser and Davey

By Leon Thurston

For the second consecutive year there is a tie for the honors of the Johnson Memorial Award, Bud Gasser and Ed Davey being co-winners of the 1946 award.

In the selections for the four- teen years of the Memorial, there have been only three ties, the latest being in 1945.

Both Gasser and Davey have been great leaders in their fields of sport and will be long remem- bered as among the finest sports- men and great athletes in the his- tory of Baldwin.

Special Chorus Will Sing At School Show

Two of George Gerahwin's best loved pieces, "Embraceable You" and "Swanee" will be presented by a special chorus as part of the interludes during the all-school play "Junior Miss" to be given in Baldwin auditorium March 28 and 29.

Members of the chorus are Joyce Stoffregen, Joanne Chapel, Anne Spierel, Mary Anne Kraft, Joyce Crawford, Joan Cowling, Mar-ilyn Black, Judy Pardee, Millie Chapman.

Henry Wagner, Donald Rankel, Bud Will, Gregory Peck, Lloyd Appell, John Dalton, Don Garfield, Vincent Hayes, James Holden, Edith Kendall is accompanist and Victor Ulrich, director.

BIRMINGHAM

Lovely, but lonely, pin-up beauty meets a like-sta- ing intruder... and loves it!

TONIGHT "STATE FAIR"

This public show has some very private ideas about love in sharing with that man! Now!

Here's the Answer to all your Battery Problems

NEW B.F. Goodrich GLASSTEK

If your battery has been causing any trouble, is old, or has outlived its guarantee period—you'll save money and time by getting a new GLAS- STEK. It's a tough battery—packed with power and built to withstand the drain of frequent starts. And, its power stays available on convenient terms.

Star on Gridiron

An outstanding tackle in foot- ball, Gasser was nominated for honorable mention on the All-State selection of 1945. He also excels in basketball and has been a strong helper in Birmingham's winning of the district Class B champion- ship.

Gasser also is an outstanding second baseman, having won let- ters in 1945 and 1946. He is still with this season still remaining. He wrote Sports Showup for Journal- ist, and has been writing in writ- ing as well as in the fields of sports.

Heads Varsity Club

A veteran and strong leader, Davey was elected captain of the 1945 football team. Also playing guard on the basketball team, Davey was a big help in Birming- ham's successful season, ranking third in total points scored.

For baseball honors, in his junior year Davey was elected All- League left fielder on the Eastern Michigan League baseball team. Showing leadership not only in the sports field, Davey was elected president of the Varsity Club in his senior year.

PLAN SPLASH PARTY

A splash party will be given Monday evening at Barnum pool for the boys and girls who have been helping to give instruction on Saturday mornings to elemen- tary school boys and girls. During the ten week period of swimming instruction, Pudge Calgrove, Virginia Marston, Penny Penfield, Shirley Mainland, Barbara Stevens, Grace Sheldon, Barbara Jones, Frank Duford, and Jack Filkins helped head in- structor, E. A. Hubbard.

WIN POSTER CONTEST

Among the 21 posters entered in the "Junior Miss" public con- test, those of Phyllis Jones, Mar- tha Penfield, and Ann Sauer were judged first, second, and third, re- spectively by Harold Buerge of the Birmingham Eccentric. Two prizes as first prize and one placed second and third were given two- way. The winners were Phyllis Jones, Sally Kreidler, and Leticia Kallers.

Barnum Junior High Girls Glee Club To Participate In District Vocal Festival

The Barnum Junior High School Girls Glee Club has been reorgan- ized for the second semester with 64 girls as members. Victor Ulrich is the director and Nancy Chess is the student accompanist. Meetings are held on Tuesday at 3:35, with extra rehearsals held from time to time.

The group is now preparing sev- eral numbers for a spring concert, which will occur to be sung at the Southeastern Michigan Vocal Festival at Royal Oak on April 12. This is the first time that any Junior High School vocal group has participated in this event. The numbers which they will do are: "Within a Dream- ing Harbor" by Anita Cook; "When Song is Sweet" by Sara- Souci; and "I Passed by Your Window" by May Brahe.

Will Present Operetta

In May the Junior High will present the operetta, "Bits of Blarney." The Girls Glee Club and students from the ninth grade vocal classes, as well as those in the eighth grade are participating in the production. Tryouts have been held; all members of the Junior High School were eligible to try out. Those who were in vocal classes or not.

"BRADLEY and the VETERANS"

A Series by John M. Carlisle Roving Reporter

The Veteran's Administration had long been a political football before it was taken over by Bradley. With the close of World War II, and the addition of millions of veterans with their attendant problems, the old system was found to be utterly inadequate.

A review of the old and new systems, together with a keen analysis of how the present Veteran's Administration is functioning under its new head are offered in a timely series by The News' roving reporter, John M. Carlisle.

Harold J. Russell, ex-paratroop sergeant who lost both hands when a block of TNT exploded, will play leading role in "Glory for Me," screen version of the MacKinlay Kantor novel about problems of returning ser- viciansmen. It will be Russell's first screen appearance. Recently he was a student at Boston U.
