Kappa Kappa Gamma Welcomes Help On Norwegian Layettes

Mrs. W. A. DeLee of Pilgrim road, entertained at luncheon on Tuesday, March 26 the members of the alumnae association of her sorority, Kappa Kappa Gamma.

All parents and friends of 4-H club members are invited to attend all of these activities. The 4-H Achievement Program will be directed by Lyn Lewis, district club agent; Mary J. E. Wood- ward, home demonstration agent; and Karl D. Bailey, county agri- cultural agent.

For the remainder of the after- noon sewing was done on the lay- ettes for babies of Norwegian war- viclins. Numerous requests have been made by non-members of the sorority to be allowed to help with this much-needed sewing project. The need for layettes is so critical that Kappa welcomes the help of any interested person. Inquiry may be made of Mrs. Orville L. Bearnley, of Buckingham road. Get rid of the deadwood. Vote for MAR- TIN as Commissioner. (Pat. Adv.)
