Easter Messages Going to Men Overseas Should be Sent At Once First Class Mail

Recognizing that Easter Sunday April 21, 1946, will undoubtedly have more significance to Members of the armed forces still overseas than at any time in recent years, and anticipating the mailing of large numbers of Easter Greetings to soldiers in the occupation areas, the War Department today urged that Easter cards be mailed immediately if delivery is to be effected before Easter Sunday.

New, more than ever before, "mail call" is a vitally important event in the daily lives of G. I. in distant places and the Army Postal Service of the Adjutant General's office points out that friends and relatives here at home should make special effort to comply with this year's mailing date for delivery of Easter messages.

Overseas Army mail should be addressed with the soldier's full name, his rank, Army serial number, organization and unit. Army are Phillip A. Jones, SK2C, and Ensign Jerome Palma, Lt. Steele L. Sellers, 960 Arlington drive, Birmingham, is another youth lately released and placed on the inactive list.
