Zelda Lantzy Weds Edward P. Quinn In Morning Ceremony

A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Anthony's Shrine in Detroit at 10:30 a. m. Monday, March 4, uniting in marriage Zelda Evangelina Lantzy of Berkeley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos W. Lantzy of Spangler, Pa., and Edward Henry Quinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Quinn of Henrietta street.

The bride was lovely in a gown of egg-shell satin fashioned with a square neckline outlined with seed pearls. The long sleeves formed tiny points over her wrists and the skirt fell into fullness at the back. Her fingertip bridal veil was held in place by a coronet of satin and seed pearls which matched her gown. Ivory white roses, with wide satin streamers, made up the bridal bouquet.

Patricia Quinn, sister of the groom, assisted as maid-of-honor. Her gown was of ice-blue tulle, designed with a fitted bodice and a bouffant skirt. Her small hat was light blue with a pink rose and a circular marine shoulder veil. She carried pink carnations.

Wed with pink tulle, Leo Lantzy, brother of the bride, acted as best man. Following the wedding breakfast the couple left by plane for a short honeymoon in Chicago. They will reside temporarily in Highland Park.
