

ANNUAL ART EXHIBIT
The tenth annual art exhibit of Wayne University will be presented from Thursday, May 23, to Wednesday, June 12, at the Detroit Institute of Arts. For the first time the exhibit, sponsored by the art department of Wayne's Liberal Arts College, will include work by alumni as well as students. All work submitted has been done during the past year.

Betty Jensen Speaks Vows At Lovely Spring Wedding

Candelabra and vases of stocks, gladioli and lilies placed in front of a screen of seasonal greens formed the background when Elizabeth Ruth Jensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Jensen of Kenosha road, and Jack Fowler Parsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Parsley of Indianapolis, were united in marriage at 3:30 p. m. Saturday, May 11, in the First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. W. Glen Harris read the double ring service.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of gorgeous white brocade, the sweetheart neckline distinguished by the long waisted bodice and unusual gathering at the shoulders. The dress was long with points over the wrists and the full skirt fell into a cathedral train.

An overview of liltion, bordered with rose point lace, was held in place by a small lace cap from which fell a full length veil of matching illusion. Betty wore a beautiful strand of matched pearls and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley centered with orchids. Peggy Jensen was maid-of-honor for her sister. Her gown was of aqua tulle, fashioned with a square neckline, three-quarter length sleeves, and a perky bow for a bustle. With this she wore rose shodden veiling and carried deep pink roses.

The bridesmaids, Mary Louise LaHaise and Mrs. Bill Parsley, both of Indianapolis, wore gowns identical to that of the maid-of-honor. Their veils were aqua colored and their bouquets of roses were of a lighter shade of pink.

The bridegroom's brother, Bill, came from Indianapolis to act as best man and the ushers included Vincent McConachie of Chicago and the bride's brother, Walter Jensen, of New York.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed at the Community House, Mrs. Jensen chose a rose crepe gown with a matching hat and a corsage of orchids. Mrs. Parsley wore an aqua gown with a large white splash print, a matching hat and a corsage of pastel pink carnations. For traveling the bride wore a forest green corduroy suit with brown accessories and the orchids from her bouquet. Mr. and Mrs. Parsley will stop in Birmingham this week end enroute from Washington, D. C., and New York, where they spent their honeymoon, to Indianapolis, where they will make their home.

Eight & Forty Has Visiting Officers As Special Guests

The Oakland County Salon No. 224, Eight & Forty entertained the departmentale chapeau, Mrs. Beatrice Barnard of Detroit, on her official visit Tuesday evening, May 14, at the Birmingham American Legion Home.

Twenty-five members and several departmentale officers enjoyed the delightful dinner which preceded the regular meeting. The tables were decorated with spring flowers in the traditional colors of red and white. Miss Agnes Baynes of Birmingham, the petite chapeau of the Salon, presided.

Other guests were Mrs. Rose Bassett of Detroit, national chairman of the Salon activities; Mrs. Leone Mines of Flint, departmentale demi chapeau. Mrs. Helen Shinn of Pontiac, departmentale demi chapeau. Mrs. Julia Gamache of Detroit, departmentale in charge. Mrs. Pearl Trudell of Detroit, departmentale patroness; and Mrs. Mabel Buggles of Detroit, departmentale child welfare chairman.

The Eight & Forty is the fun organization of the American Legion Auxiliary, the members having several years of outstanding service to the Auxiliary. Their work is "unobtrusive control, primary type among children." In 1945, the Oakland County Salon won a national and departmentale trophy for outstanding service in child welfare.

The Ranch Room Roundup

Last Friday after school John Kaiter really collected his prize for naming the Ranch Room hamburger, "Ranchburger." Along with a coke he downed six "Ranchburgers" which is really a record. The time is drawing nearer to the date of May 25th. This date should be in the minds of every one of you, particularly the Senators.

Why?—because then is the Senior Prom given by the Youth Council and Varsity Club. The Frolic is for everyone, control, from the swingers to the waltzers.

The treat of the evening is Al Fort's band, the orchestra, capable of tendering tunes you'll like, whether they be smooth or jumpy.

The time from 9:00 to 1:00. The place, of course, is the Community House with the Ranch Room open for business at all times.

The committees are now in full swing trying to bring to you a dance well worth remembering. Hoping for a large turnout, we leave you until next week.

Hantramck Girls Win Metropolitan Tennis Tournament Honors

Stephanie Frychitko, sixteen-year-old Hantramck High School student, was crowned champion of the Metropolitan Open Girls tennis tournament for the second straight year.

She defeated her schoolmate, Josephine Smilka, 6-3, 7-5 in the final match at Veterans Memorial park, Hantramck, last Thursday.

Elaine Lewicki, twelve-year-old student from Coopericus Intermediate School, Hantramck, defeated Irene Waskiewicz, also of Hantramck, 6-4, 3-6, 8-1. In a grueling match to win the junior girls' crown.

Jane McCarthy To Marry Navy Man Saturday, June 15

Another name was added to the list of June brides this week when Elizabeth Jane McCarthy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Siew en McCarthy of Pilgrim road, announced that she will marry Design Robert Cornelius Leary, USNR, son of Cornelius P. Leary of Buffalo, N. Y., and the late Mrs. Leary, on Saturday, June 15, in Holy Name church at 11 o'clock in the morning.

Mrs. Gordon F. Day will come from Fort Atkinson, Wis., to be matron-of-honor for her sister and Jane has asked Sue Mason and Mrs. Donald Kelly of Saginaw to be her bridesmaids.

Acting as best man for Mr. Leary will be Martin Kiel of Buffalo, N. Y., and the guests will be seated by Gordon F. Day of Fort Atkinson and James Shanahan of Buffalo.

A reception will be held at Oakland Hills Country Club in the afternoon.

This Saturday will mark the start of the parties to honor the bride-elect, Jean Guest, herself a bride-elect of June 22, and Joanne Stone will be hostess at a miscellaneous shower that evening in the Guest home on Larchlea drive.

On Wednesday, May 22, Mrs. Edward R. Hayes will entertain with a miscellaneous shower and luncheon at her home on Pilgrim road and the following day Kathleen O'Brien will give a supper and kitchen shower at her home in Detroit.

Jane is a graduate of Baldwin High School and of the University of Michigan, where she was affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

Her fiancé has been in service for the past three years and is now on his way home from Okinawa, after 15 months overseas. He plans to return to the University of Michigan and will resume his studies there.

League Lays Plans For Future Events
