

Opening Women's Party At Oakland Hills Is Success

Mrs. Damon S. Gall, social chairman of women's social activities at Oakland Hills Country Club has reported that the opening party of the season for all women members yesterday was a big success.

This was the annual reacquainted party for golfers and non-golfers. Those who play are interested in playing met with Mrs. Harry E. Reiver, golf chairman, at 11:30 a. m. and the non-golfers joined the party at 12:30 in time for cocktails before the luncheon.

Bridge and gin-rummy furnished the afternoon's entertainment for those who cared to play.

Each of the party were Mrs. A. J. Scriven, Mrs. B. O. Mead, Mrs. Perry Allen, Mrs. W. R. Cortwright, Mrs. Fred Keller, Mrs. Jack Henderson, Mrs. Warren Pease, Jr., Mrs. William E. Johnson, Mrs. Robert E. Jenner, and Mrs. L. V. Brown.

Others were Mrs. D. B. Burleigh, Mrs. Charles Hoff, Mrs. J. Ray Scolaro, Mrs. Joseph Murphy, Mrs. Chester Cahn, Mrs. M. M. Burgess, Mrs. George H. King, Mrs. R. R. Rolph, Mrs. Hicks Jones, Mrs. Charles Merritt, Mrs. Reginald Burch, Mrs. C. F. Kramer, Mrs. A. C. Olf, Mrs. James E. Davis, Mrs. R. W. Heizer, and Mrs. Hoyt Metzger.

Officers of V. F. W. Installed Monday Evening, April 29

The officers of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, City of Birmingham Post and Auxiliary No. 2646 were installed Monday evening at the Community House.

Life memberships to the National Home at Eaton Rapids were presented to Mrs. Asa Cooley, president, and to Mrs. Charles Cooney, senior vice-president. Michigan cottage No. 4 is now being built and is supported by this group.

A wheel chair was given to the Percy Jones Hospital, funds given for the purchase of electric razors to be used by hand amputees, and slippers and cuffs made for the hospitalized veterans.

Plans have been made for a hospital greenhouse at Battle Creek to which the local Auxiliary has contributed.

C. Y. C. Is Planning Last Dance of the Season for May 11

With one successful dance just completed, plans are pushed by the Birmingham C. Y. C. for a smashing finale to the school year.

Saturday, May 11, is the date for the event and the locale is the Community House. The band committee, Hal Welch and Ed Larson, have signed Jimmy Strauss and his orchestra and Jackie (hubba-hubba) Ward, of WWF's Coffee Club, will be the featured vocalist.

Jeanne Goodwin has charge of publicity; Pamela Caputo, decorations; Larson, Inc., tickets; Jack Seiler, ballroom; and Phil Lapin, Don Nelson and John Dulake, door prizes. Mary McGinnis, Jim Holden, George Halpin, Kiki Mack, Pete Torres and others will be picking up the loose ends and Lisabeth Quirt is director at large.

Summer Round-Up To Be Held May 7

Tuesday, May 7, is the date set for the annual Summer Round-Up of the Adams Parent-Teacher Association for the mothers of all children who will begin kindergarten in the fall and the children themselves in the kindergarten room at Adams at 2 p. m. and while the mothers will hear brief talks by Paul Carter, school principal, and Miss Frances Curtin, school nurse. Tea will also be served.

The children will be enrolled at this time, and mothers are asked to bring the youngsters' birth certificates. The invitation to attend is extended to all, whether or not they have been contacted by telephone.

The committee in charge consists of Mrs. Tom Ward, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Raleigh Hoover, Mrs. Robert Marsh and Mrs. Richard Elberly.

On Monday evening, May 6, the Adams P. T. A. holds its final meeting of the year. The Adams Guild will present musical numbers, with a brief commentary on the music program by Miss Elizabeth O'Neil, music director.

Following this there will be a teaching film on arithmetic entitled "What is Four?" with Mr. Carter explaining modern methods of teaching arithmetic. Following the meeting there will be a social hour when refreshments will be served.

ANNOUNCEMENT
Antique Jewelry and Old Silver will be shown and for sale by WILLIAM J. SIEBERT at the
REDFORD ANTIQUE SHOW
 May 3-4-5
 REDFORD MASONIC TEMPLE
 11 A.M. to 9 P.M.

Watching World Affairs

Frank "The Voice" Sinatra listens while sculptor Jo Davidson passes along a few thoughts at a session of the United Nations Security Council in New York.

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Arrange Anniversary Event

Birmingham members of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs are reported preparing to have a party with other lodges of the Metropolitan Detroit area in commemoration of the 127th anniversary of the founding of American Odd Fellowship. A special program is being planned for Saturday, May 4, at the Fountain Room of the Detroit Masonic Temple. There will be a dance, floor show and cards from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m.

A highlight of this year's program will be the election of "Miss Rebekah" whose identity will not be revealed until the winner enters with her court of honor at 10:30 p. m. The winner will be crowned by the master of ceremonies and will be presented with a diamond ring.

An invitation is extended to all members and their friends to attend the party. Music and floor show are to be under the personal direction of George Fentel.

On Sunday, May 5, the annual church service will be held in the Metropolitan Methodist church, Woodward and Chandler avenues. A parade will form at 4:30 o'clock the Rev. C. A. McPheters will deliver the address.

Annual Methodist Banquet To Be May 7

Mothers and daughters of the First Methodist church will meet for their annual banquet at the Community House May 7 at 6:30 p. m.

Mrs. Earl Stoffregen has planned a varied program of entertainment. She has secured the services of a member of the National Storytellers League of Detroit as well as that of several home talent numbers.

Mrs. Edgar Eberole has charge of table decorations and the dinner is being planned by Mrs. Charles Olin. Tickets may be obtained from the group leaders.

Marjorie Walton Will Wed June 22

On Saturday, June 22, Marjorie Walton, daughter of Mrs. Thomas E. Walton of Townsend street and the late Captain Walton, will speak her marriage vows to A. Fletcher Plant, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fletcher Plant of Brookside drive.

The Rev. Harold E. Towne will read the service at St. James Episcopal church at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Thomas R. Walton, Jr. will give his sister in marriage. Mrs. Robert W. Ector, the bride-elect's sister, will be matron-of-honor and Marjorie will also be assisted by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Thomas R. Walton, Jr.

Fletcher's brother, William G. Plant, will be best man and the guests will be seated by Robert W. Ector, James Juhl, Percy Guest and William B. Hulbert.

A small reception at Oakland Hills Country Club for the immediate family and relatives will follow the ceremony.

"Marge" will share the honor at her first shower on May 3 with bride-elect Nancy Kirk. Mrs. Ernest W. Seaborn and her daughter, Mrs. William B. Hulbert, will be hostesses at the Seaborn home on Kenesaw road that evening.

All kinds of household goods are readily sold by use of Eccentric Classified Ads.

Pierce P. T. A. Plans Meeting for May 9

Dr. W. Brooke Stabler, headmaster at Cranbrook School for Boys, will be the guest speaker at the May meeting of the Pierce School Parent-Teacher Association on Thursday evening, May 9, at 8 o'clock.

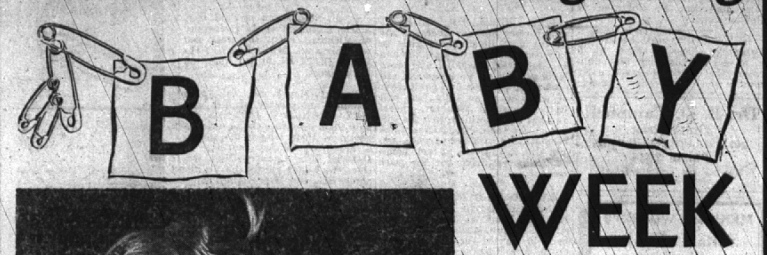

A brief business meeting with installation of officers for the coming year will precede the program. Refreshments will be served by the following committee: Mrs. A. Gallagher, chairman, Mrs. A. Schmitt and Mrs. Arthur Brenner.

W. A. Sears, newly elected president, will attend the Michigan Congress of Parent-Teacher Associations annual convention which will be held at Sault Ste. Marie on May 7, 8 and 9. Mrs. Sears will accompany her husband to the session.

On May 22, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon all mothers of children entering kindergarten at Pierce School for the fall term are invited to contact Gerald White, principal, by phone and give him information on beginners from their homes.

At the May 22 meeting mothers will have an opportunity to meet the kindergarten teacher, Mr. White, other school workers, and also Mrs. R. B. Brown, retiring president of the association. In charge of refreshments will be Mrs. Howard Hallas, Mrs. Clyde Collins, Mrs. L. Gilliam and Mrs. Don DeLoria.

Mulholland's are Recognizing

This is National Baby Week—Your baby may not realize it, and he may not be able to ask you in so many words, but your big-dimpled little darling would if he could, ask you for some of these wonderful wearables. National Baby Week is a fine time to buy what baby needs.

- Baby Dresses $2.25 to $3.95
- Baby Sweaters $1.88 to $3.95
- Baby Shirts with sleeves or sleeveless 50c to 59c
- Baby Blankets $1.59 to $7.95
- Baby Comforters $5.95 to $12.95

MRS. DAY'S IDEAL BABY SHOES... $1.95
 Semi Rigid Soles

- Drawstring Nighties... 89c
- PLAYTEX RUBBER PANTIES, all sizes... 69c
- Baby Soakers 89c to $1.11
- Plakie Toys... 39c to $1.00
- Feeding Sets... 79c to $2.95
- Electric BOTTLE STERILIZERS... $5.95

All Type Baby Bibs - 19c to $1.00

Boy and Girl Hats and Caps - 89c to $2.95

SANITEX SHEETING, by the yard... yd. $1.39

PLASTIC BABY PADS, all sizes... 89c to $2.95

BABY WARDROBE HANGERS... set of 3 for 59c

PLASTIC HANGERS... each 89c and $1.00

NESLING'S KNIT SAFETY BLANKETS... $4.95

DISPOSABLE DIAPERS... 79c and $1.05

DISPOSABLE PANTIES... 59c and 62c

Infants' Knitted Suits and Rompers $1.39 to $3.95

OPEN FRIDAY EVENINGS

Bridge Tea and Baby Bazaar To Be Given At St. James Church

St. Catherine's Guild of St. James Church met at the home of Miss Shirley and Miss Louise Hersey on West Maple road last Tuesday evening to complete final arrangements for the bridge tea and baby bazaar to be held May 7 in the church parlors from 1:30 to 5 p. m.

Mrs. Philip Smith is general chairman of the affair. Mrs. James Dickson and Mrs. Richard Brown are chairmen of the bridge and tea respectively. Mrs. Dickson will be assisted by Miss Louise Hersey and Miss Shirley Hersey and Mrs. Charles Eddy and Mrs. Bonnell Matthews are on Mrs. Brown's committee.

Mrs. William Downer and Mrs. William Rodger are in charge of the bazaar and Mrs. Ferris Jennings will assist them.

Tickets to the event may be bought at the door or from guild members.

Pinafores, sun-waifs, bibs, stuffed animals, hand-knit clothing, and baby dresses will be on sale.

Democrats at Odds

Rep. Lyle H. Boren of Oklahoma is leader of a group of Democratic congressmen at odds with the National Committee and Chairman Robert E. Hannegan. They demand that the committee "lay off" Democratic House members who do not always toe the line on administration legislation.

McGREGOR
RIO-RANGO ENSEMBLE
 A ROSE FABRIC OF WASHABLE BENGALINE
 $11.50
 Here's a hot-weather outfit that's a honey... McGregor's Rio-Rango Ensemble. It's a Washable Bengaline... rich-looking, rich-feeling and crease-resistant! In matching or contrasting sets.

Mulholland's
 Men's and Boys' Department