Executive Board of Holy Name P-T. A. Chosen for Year

Formal installation of the new officers was the highlight of the Holy Name Parent-Teacher Association meeting held Monday afternoon in the Alumni House.

Mrs. Donald McGaffey, Holy Name delegate to the State P-T-A Convention held recently at the Soo, gave an interesting report on the Convention activities and Miss Catherine Skelley entertained with piano selections.

Mrs. Richard Roach, incoming president, announced her executive board for the coming year as follows: Mrs. Frank Lake, program chairman; Mrs. William Carroll, membership; Mrs. Donald McGaffey, attendance; Mrs. Kirk Baldwin, publicity; Mrs. Edward Stenger, hospitality; Mrs. James Maluish and Edwin Dowd, budget and finance.

Sister Mary Ernest and Mrs. William Shook, library; Mrs. Arthur Deslosiers, safety; Mrs. Durwood Rossman, Girl Scout; Mrs. Warren Sumner, recreation; Mrs. Clement Kelley, motion pictures; Mrs. Gilbert Schrock, adult education; Mrs. Thomas Lavanagh, legislative; Mrs. Arthur Mason, shut-ins; and Mrs. Howard Glason, parliamentarian.

The Rev. Ralph Barton closed the meeting with a brief talk and refreshments were then served.

Club Women Hold Mother-Daughter Banquet May 15

Mrs. Howar Estes welcomed the members and guests of the Birmingham Business Women and Sororist Clubs at their annual Mother and Daughter Banquet held May 15, at the Community House.

White snapdragons and pink geraniums, alternated with candles and flowers, mother and daughter dolls, decorated the speaker's table where Mrs. Bea Olson presided as toastmistress.

Following the singing of "America," Miss Julia E. Kagin gave the invocation. Mrs. Friday Cook led the community singing, with Mrs. Russell Heinze at the piano.

Toasts to the mothers and daughters, who were seated at adjoining tables decorated with mother and daughter dolls and bouquets of purple lilacs and tulips, were given by Jane Wootton and Mrs. Jess Wright.

Additional entertainment was provided by Mrs. William Milligan with a reading and by the presentation of corsages to the oldest mother and the youngest daughter. Mrs. Samuel Schmitz, 81, took the first honor and forty-year-old Diane Shore, a guest of Mrs. Matthew Cammarere, was the winner of the latter prize.

Miss Marcella Ladd, who was chairman of the decoration and program committee, closed the evening leaving Birmingham June 1, to make her home in New Jersey, was also presented with a gift.

Her committee of workers included Mrs. Thelma Zimmerman, Mrs. Rose Buckley, Mrs. Frank Plumstead, Mrs. Matthew Cammarere, Miss Major Robbins, Mrs. T. Glasford and Miss Agnes Crawford.

Betrothed

Betty Eloise Kuhlman

Mrs. and Mr. L. A. Kuhlman of Haines street announced the engagement of their daughter, Betty Eloise, to Robert Frederick Krug, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Krug of Royal Oak.

Mrs. Krug served three years in the Pacific aboard the destroyer U.S.S. Ingersoll.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Shirley Parsons And Clayton Walk Married Saturday

Tall standards filled with white snapdragons and stocks, along with palms and lilies in cathedral candelabra tapered the background for the marriage of Shirley Mae Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Parsons of Bates 15 at Ardmore, and Clayton W. Walk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Walk of Humphrey street, at the First Presbyterian church, The Rev. W. Glen Harris read the double ring ceremony at eight o'clock Saturday evening, May 18.

Given in marriage by her father, Shirley wore an exquisite gown featuring a satin bodice and sleeves, a sheer marquisette yoke edged with lace and an underskirt edged with ruffles, white, pinned from beneath the sheer overskirt, which had lace around the bottom and completely around the train. This overskirt was caught up in front with satin bows.

Her three-tiered fingertip length veil of illusion fell from a cap fashioned of satin rose petals and she carried a bouquet of white roses, gardenias, and blue delphinium.

Acting as maid-of-honor was the bridegroom's sister, Marion, and the bridesmaids, Dorothy Sandoval, Cathryn Witt, Donita Busard of Pontiac and Irma Race of Royal Oak. They were gowned in rainbow colors of pink, light green, pale blue and a deeper shade of blue. Their gowns were made with high round peplines and cap sleeves and the girls wore matching mitts with their dresses. Their bouquets were of pink roses and blue delphinium.

Ann Pikulinski of Enid, Okla., the bride's niece, and Carolyn Boyce were flower girls. Both little girls wore white net over peach. The dresses had lace collars and puff sleeves. They, too, wore fresh flowers in their hair and each carried a basket filled with rose petals.

Stanwood Radoye of Clarkston was best man for Clayton and the ushers included John Parsons, brother of the bride, William Busard of Pontiac, Slaughter, Walk, and Myron Moore.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed in her home, Mrs. Parsons received her guests in a black ensemble with a side draped crepe skirt and a marquisette top. Her hat was pink and she wore a corsage of pink roses. Walk chose an apple green suit for the occasion. Her black hat was trimmed with pink roses and she, too, wore a pink rose corsage.

Following a honeymoon in Northern Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Walk will reside in Clawson. For traveling Mrs. Walk wore a peacock blue and gold silk outfit with a gold topcoat, white accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Christina Thom Engaged To Wed

The engagement of their daughter, Christina, to Sturtevant Hobbs was announced this week by Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Robertson Thom of Franklin road. Mr. Hobbs is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W.
