Silver Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Minks Is Event of Saturday

Annual Election Is Held Monday At Community House

Mrs. H. M. Foley and Mrs. A. S. McPike, directors-at-large.

Reports Year's Work
Mrs. Liverance reviewed in her annual report the work of the League in a year which she characterized as "one of the most successful we have ever lived through."

A gala meeting Monday at the Community House marked the last formal League of Women Voters membership gathering of the season, through League work will continue through the summer. A large crowd of members and visitors heard the afternoon's program, highlighted by the president's annual report, formal installation of new officers, a plea for League cooperation with the food emergency committee's conservation program, and a talk by Col. S. L. A. Marshall of the Detroit News staff, official Army ETO historian. The buffet luncheon was carefully planned to omit scarce food items.

Officers who will assume direction of League activities now are Mrs. Howard J. Liverance, re-elected president; Mrs. Alan Looftourrow, vice-president; Mrs. Graham Shinnick, second vice-president; Mrs. Brooks Marshall, corresponding secretary; Mrs. R. W. Rely, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Hugh A. White, treasurer;

...Our two-fold objective in this program which the League voted this morning to support must be voluntary individual saving to make the program a success, and to urge the secretary of Agriculture to use the power he has to set aside more of the needed foods for shipment abroad, according to the recommendations of the Emergency Conservation Committee. As consumers we must urge that unless the food situation improves...
